INTRODUCTION TO THE PRINCIPLES OF SPIRITUAL WARFARE

1. Do not make each bout of spiritual warfare your personal battle. (Exo.15:3; Jer.51:20.) Do not permit yourself to be overwhelmed by the task or challenge at hand. There is no need to do so. Do not be fearful, intimidated, anxious, or threatened by anything that you experience or feel. Be deliberate in your responses.

You must step out in faith and DO *! Jesus said to the blind men after touching their eyes, " According to your faith be it unto you." (Mt.9:29). God has given the measure of faith to all men. Use it! (Ro.12:3) Faith is trust on Christ. Without faith it is impossible to please God. (Heb.11:1) It brings the things of God, including the results of prayer, intercession, and declaration, from the realm of the Holy Spirit into the physical realm. (Heb.11:1) You cannot pray for strong faith. That is not Biblical. Scripture says " Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by The Word of God." (Ro.10:17) Say "Faith comes." Again, "Faith comes." Again, "Faith comes."

2. Your Faith and anointed words empower spiritual warfare. Faith (trust on Christ) is a Shield that quenches every fiery dart of the Enemy. Not some. All. Faith is the victory that causes us to overcome the world. (1 John 5:4) .

3.You must use the faith of God, not faith in God to see changes in your life and victory in your warfare. Faith in God is the trust in or on God for salvation:

The Faith of God, or the God-kind of Faith is the faith that Christ used in Genesis 1 when He created the universe and spoke it into existence. It says "And God said….and it was" (happened) 9 times in that Chapter. God decreed and released the words, then believed that the words would go forth and do what He intended; he did not dwell on it or say "OK, let's stop for a while and see what happens!" (Doubt) He just trusted on Himself, that His words would manifest His Will. That is the Faith of God. You and I must do the same. In John 14:12 Jesus said, "The things that I do, you will do, and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to the Father." I call it Creative Faith.

4. You must know and be convicted that Satan, the fallen angels (principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness, wicked spirits in high places of Eph.6:12). strongman spirits (Mt.12:29) demons (Lk10:17), aliens, disembodied unsaved souls that walk the earth (ghosts (Isa.8), are all defeated by Christ and His work of the Cross. They have no power against you and all that they do is a bluff. It is important that you know that in order to stand up to them and resist them. They may be theatrical in their vocal displays or threats. They may threaten you physically, emotionally or mentally. Nothing by any means will harm you. You are given the exclusive power of Christ and by Christ to bind and trample them can cast them out to The Pit and chain them there until the Great White Throne Judgment.(Lk.10:17,19)

5.Preparations for spiritual warfare :

a. You must be born-again and water baptized by immersion.

b. Be baptized in the Holy Spirit and operate in the gifts of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1) (1 Cor.12)

1. Two ways to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit:

a. ministry of impartation by the laying-on-of-hands from a known Spirit-filled Christian who has the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. (Acts 8:14-17).Please read carefully. Note that the Samarians had already "received the word", that is, they had become born-again and had the Holy Spirit within which produces the fruit of the Spirit, and were now going to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit upon, to release the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Do not doubt or you will not receive and will have to try again.

b. ask Father God to baptize you in His Holy Spirit. (Luke Chapter 11). Read it slowly to understand, then ask Father without doubting. If you doubt that you receive the gifts, you will not receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. Try again.

c. You must have a pure heart and clean hands to stand on the Hill of The Lord-how?

1. daily self-examination, confession, repentance directly to The Lord Jesus Christ.(Ps.24:4;1Jn.1:9)

a. Note: You must deal with lack of forgiveness toward anyone; forgive and release them and yourself, or your warfare prayers will not be heard or answered by God. (Mt.6:15)

2. Acknowledge The Lord. He will show you what to do. (Prov.3:6)
3. Submit to God, resist the devil, he will flee from you. (James 4:7)
4. Present your bodies an acceptable sacrifice of worship and your members as instruments of righteousness. (Ro.12:1;5:13)
5. Put on the Full Armor of God-aloud. (Eph. 6)
6. YIELD TO THE HOLY SPIRIT (Rev.1:16;Ro.8:16) and TRUST (FAITH).
   a. Rev.1:16
   b. Ps.103:20
   c. Mt.16:19
   d. Ro.8:16
   e. 1 Cor, 6:17
7. Having done all, stand firm. (Eph.6:13). Do not be intimidated by what you hear, see or feel.

8. The Weapons of Spiritual Warfare- PLEASE LOOK UP, READ AND STUDY ALL SCRIPTURE REFERENCES:

1. Words-words are spiritual. 2 Cor.10:4:
   1. faith-filled words delivered under the anointing are used as the Rhema Sword of The Spirit.
   2. Take every thought captive to Christ and cast down every vain imagination.(2 Cor.10:5)
   3. We speak words taught by the Spirit, comparing spiritual thoughts with spiritual words. (1 Cor.2:13)
   4. Quoting Scriptures against the Enemy can weaken them or drive them off, permanently.

2. The Believer's Authority – Lk.10:17,19; Mt.16:19; Mk.11:23-24; Job 22:28; Prov.18:21; 1 Cor.6:17, Lk.16:7; Heb.1:14.

3 Binding and Loosing- Mt.16:19
   1. You bind (tie) the entity, you loose (untie) the person, place or thing, "all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it." Pay particular attention to the wording of the verse: it says "whatsoever you bind is bound, whatsoever you loose is loosed. That gives you wide latitude.

4. Declaration- Job 22:28, "You shall decree a thing; it will be established for you."
   1. Some translations say "declare a thing". Let's look at the types and their definitions from the original Hebrew for the words:
      a. Decree- a command given with authority as an immutable law, as if cut with a sharp instrument in stone.
      b. Declare- to make a declaration that something stated is legally binding.
      c. Proclaim- to make a proclamation that is purposely announced to make public to all.
   2. All that is decreed, declared or proclaimed, must be done so "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name."
   3. This is a very, very powerful tool of scripture. When I use it, I like to always start all of my commands " By the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, I decree, declare and proclaim…… (then state what, or say "By the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name I decree, declare, proclaim and command that……". " By the faith of God, be-in Christ Jesus' Name." By doing it "in Christ Jesus' Name at the beginning, you will never forget to do it. It will protect you from spiritual retaliation by the Enemy. If you forget to say it at the end of the command, then the Enemy, being legalistic, sees you have no legal authority to do something commanded in your own name because you have no divine authority, and rightfully concludes that it has a right to retaliate.

5. The Power of Rebuke- You can say to the Enemy" I rebuke you in Christ Jesus' Name."(Titus 2:15)
   a. You can repeat it as needed. Rebuke is painful to demonic spirits or archontic spirits (principalities/fallen angels} and can weaken them significantly. Continually rebuking them each time that they repeat their ministry to a believer, can even break their will and bring deliverance.

6. Counter-petitioning- Job Chapter 1
   a. In Job Chapter 1 we see that Satan petitioned God to test Job. He obviously makes a practice of it. He wanted to prove to God that he could get Job to blaspheme God. We see from this that Satan makes a practice of going before God to petition for people. Through the Believer's Authority, we have the right to go before God and counterpetition for a person, saved or unsaved, that Satan is petitioning for, particularly if we see that he is trying to bring them down to destruction by one bad thing after another happening to them. God will hear the petitions of an intercessory believer who petitions "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name", standing in the gap for them.

7. Praying a Hedge of Protection- Job Chapter 1; Psalm 91
   a. In Job Chapter 1, God had a hedge of protection around Job so that Satan could not touch him. Satan petitioned God to lift the hedge of protection to that he could test Job. You can pray: "Father, by the Faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, I pray a hedge of protection around (name) and decree him/her inaccessible to Satan and all of his minions, this day and each and every day to come, and decree, declare, proclaim and command his/her deliverance and healing by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, Amen." Psalm 91 is a complete prayer for the hedge of protection to be placed around the believer.

   b. The Break in the Hedge – Ecclesiastes 10:8
   This verse tells us, "He that digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaks a hedge, a serpent shall bite him." The legal ground of Satan against someone who has his/her hedge of protection up, is the practice of iniquity, that is, willful sin against the will of God. It will cause a break in the hedge of protection, allowing demonic entry or entry to any other agent of Satan. The "serpent" in this verse represents Satan, a fallen angel or a demon, or possibly another human or non-human agent of Satan such as a witch, warlock, shaman, pagan priest or priestess Satanist, or other occultist. It is important that the break or gap in the hedge be closed, through confession, heartfelt repentance, and reconciliation back to God. An intercessor may provide temporary protection by the Holy Spirit by "standing in the gap".

8. Standing in the Gap-Ezekiel 22:30

   a. In Ezekiel 22:30, God said, " I sought a man among them that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me on behalf of the land so that I might not destroy it: but I found no one." The hedge is the hedge of protection that God surrounds a person with. The gap represents the break in the hedge, brought about by the practice of sin. Drug addicts, those who practice sexual perversions, those who practice fornication, adultery, or other habitual sins, all have a break in their hedges of protection. That break permits demonic entry to the soul-man of the person, whether saved or unsaved, and the person's passivity toward sin or spirituality, and their lack of finding no necessity of being in right standing with God, permits the demonic spirits to come and go as they please. Often, this makes it perfect for the demonic spirits to "park" in the person and use him to make contacts with other people to get to minister to them, also, while maintaining their "parking space" in the person they targeted. If the person knows numerous people, they will not harm him, but just use him to "park" as they minister to his many social contacts. Deliverance ministers refer to such a person as a "Storehouse person." Storehouse people are usually very spiritually oppressed but not always.

b. The person who volunteers to stand in the gap for the oppressed person, saved or unsaved, will usually be a mature Christian who knows spiritual warfare and who knows his/her authority in Christ. They have two functions: 1] when they stand in the gap, they are standing in the break in the hedge. Spiritually, they are standing in front of the afflicted person, and blocking Satan from getting access to the victim. They know to bind and paralyze Satan and all of his minions, and to decree retaliation forbidden in the Name of Christ Jesus, so no harm comes to the victim that they are protecting, or themselves. There should be intercession on behalf of the afflicted person, for confession, repentance, turning of the heart to Christ, and calling upon Father God to call the individual to the Lord Christ Jesus and to cause him/her to respond. 2] The second function of someone standing in the gap is to be a bridge in the gap between the afflicted person and Jesus. Often, breaks in the hedge occur very often in unbelievers, and often in backslidden believers, both of whom have moved away from the Lord Jesus Christ. Here is where the second function of standing in the gap comes into play. When a person agrees to be an intercessor to stand in the gap for a person, it is because that person has moved away from God and has no way to reestablish contact of relationship with the Lord, usually because their hearts are hardened. If they will soften their hearts enough to let the believing intercessor stand in the gap for them, it is like the intercessor is taking the left hand of the afflicted person and holding it in his right hand, and taking the right hand of Jesus and holding it in their (the intercessor's) left hand, and bridging the gap between Jesus and the afflicted person so that the anointing that destroys the yoke (bondage), can flow from Jesus through the intercessor in the gap, to the afflicted person. The intercessor in the gap can pray aloud with the understanding, or aloud in tongues, to permit the flow of the Holy Spirit to flow through him/her to the afflicted person. It may be done repeatedly at prearranged intervals until breakthrough is seen.

9. Praying a Hedge of Thorns- (Hosea 2:6-7)

The prophet Hosea had an unfaithful wife who was cheating on him and having affairs with other men. He did not know if he should divorce her or not. He went to God to seek counsel. God told him to pray a hedge of thorns around her. The hedge of thorns is a prayer device that when decreed, surrounds the person needing guidance and ministry with a spiritual thorn bush that will "prick" them firmly or even hard with a lesson of life if they take a path through the hedge that is not the path of God. Apparently, by "trial and error" with a little help from the Holy Spirit, they are guided into the one and only safe path for passage out of their circumstances and discomfort, a path where demonic scales will be broken off of their eyes, ears, and heart, and they can, again, find their way home. It will not be without cost, however, for "thorns" are adverse experiences. When they occur one after another, a short time apart, they tend to hurt, and if God really has to get their attention, they may even have to "bleed" a bit. God has a way of getting their attention. It is prayed by declaration. Pray: "Father, I pray a hedge of thorns around (name) to deter him/her from this path of destruction that they are on, and I ask you, Holy Spirit, to give them whatever experience they need to get them on the path to God, in Christ Jesus' Name. When the result is obtained, you must decree the lifting off of the hedge of thorns, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

10. Travailing in the Spirit- (Exo.18:8; Eccles.3:10)

Travailing in the Spirit is a work of intercession, particularly for something that you know the Holy Spirit is grieved about. It is particularly useful for intercession for someone who is spiritually blind over what they are doing, or has stubborn willfulness or a hardened heart and will not listen. It was practiced in Old Testament times by the patriarchs, the prophets, and the people. It is still practiced today, and is highly effective when one persists in it. It involves groaning, moaning and weeping, while directing the intent of the heart toward intercession for the individual in question. It is sometimes used for spiritual birthing of a work for the Kingdom of God at the direction of the Holy Spirit It can go on for minutes or hours. In doing so, the Holy Spirit is crying and weeping through you and for the person in question, uniting His intercession with yours. It brings repentance and direction to the person being prayed for. It is akin to a work of birthing something into the individual being prayed for, and the groans and moans used are often intense, sometimes moderate, as a woman in labor, and the Holy Spirit assigns the meaning(s) to it. One might regard it as an Old Testament form of "tongues", in which the Holy Spirit prays a perfect prayer through a person who makes the sounds. In 1 Cor.14:2, Paul said " no one understands him, however in his spirit he speaks mysteries." In Acts 2:4 we read, " And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." In other words, they made the sounds and the Holy Spirit gave the meaning to those sounds. We see, then, that travailing in the Spirit has a common foundation with speaking in tongues in that both are a manifestation and co*-operation* with the Holy Spirit. How is it done? Decree that you yield to the Holy Spirit first, to travail with Him in the Spirit. Tell the Holy Spirit the person that you are travailing for, in your thoughts, and then begin continual travailing with continual moaning and groaning but no words, and continue until you perceive a release in your spirit to stop. Persist in repeated sessions until you see the results. When you are ready to do the ridiculous, God is ready to do the miraculous. Believe to receive the effects and benefits of the travail, with a holy expectation and the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. Give thanks, praise and glory to Father God, The Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

11. Dispatching Angels- (Heb. 1:14; Ps.91; Ps.103:20)

Hebrews 1:14 says of the angels, " Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?" The literal Greek of the New Testament expresses it more directly and specifically: "Are they not all ministering spirits sent out on behalf of those who are to inherit salvation. In Psalm 91 we that angels minister to us. In Hebrews 1:14, we see that angels minister on our behalf, that is according to our commands. Shocking? Does Jesus command angels? Of course, He does! Can we command angels? Of course, we can. Jesus said we can do so. In John 14:12, Jesus said "the things that I do, you shall do also, and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to the Father." Do you dare to believe that verse? Or do you only believe some verses of the Bible but not others? Commanding angels is the right and privilege of every Spirit-filled believer who takes God at His Word. Angels are holy. They are to be respected, honored and thanked for their service, but not to be worshipped. (Daniel 11) They must be called upon by respectful invitation to enter a circumstance. We must not grieve them through prideful or arrogant commanding which, I believe, they will not honor. When using angels, we direct our prayer request to Father God. We can say, for instance, " Father, I yield to your Holy Spirit and By the Faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, Father, I invite and command, decree, declare and proclaim that warrior angels come forth in whatever number of legions necessary to (give a command such as "destroy", "rescue", "overthrow", "bind", "protect", etc.) (then state the object or thing or person needing help) (or give a command to destroy evil) in Christ Jesus' Name and to your Glory, Father, so be these things now in Christ Jesus' Name. I bind up all retaliations, counterattacks, judgments, wrath or revenge of Satan and his minions and decree such immediately, permanently, continually, and perpetually forbidden against me, my spouse, my children, family members, church or ministry people, etc., all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. Warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus, go forth, dear friends and cause these prayers to be, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it." You can dispatch ministering angels of the Lord Christ Jesus to go forth on a mission to minister an assignment by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. You can command them to break through and break down resistance by the Enemy, and to confound the Enemy and throw their plans into continual confusion and disarray. Every command must be given "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name" You can ask ministering angels to minister to an individual according to their spiritual and temporal needs, or to guide or direct them by ministering the Word of God to them. There are many things you can use warrior and ministering angels for. Be creative BUT be certain that any command that you give is scriptural, that is, backed by your right to use your authority in Christ delegated to you by Luke 10:19, Mt. 16:19. Job 22:28, Mk.11:23-24. When their mission is completed, be sure to appreciate them by thanking and blessing them.

12. Angelic Fire Bombing -Lk. 9:54, Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them." Jesus said "You so nor know what spirit you are of, for the Son of Man came not to destroy people's lives but to save them."

    We learn from Lk.9:54 that it is possible for the believer to call down the fire of God to destroy, but not to destroy people. There is no restriction, however, to using the fire of God to destroy the works of evil, the works of The Enemy. Samson, in Judges 15:4, rounded up 300 foxes, tied their tails together and tied torches to the ends of their tails and loosed them upon the grain fields of the Philistines and burned and destroyed their fields and crops. There is a place for "fire bombing" to destroy the works of the Enemy (Satan) but today, Jesus said "The things of the Spirit are spirit, and the things of the flesh are flesh." (John 3:6) so we now call down the fire of God, spiritually, upon the evil works of Satan to destroy those works "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name." Jesus said, "be it done unto you according to your faith."

13. Angelic Ambushes- 2 Chronicles 20

    In 2 Chronicles 20, King Jehoshaphat was faced with an impending attack by the armies of the Ammonites, Moabites, and Meunites who had surrounded him and the nation of Judah. He was vastly outnumbered and did not have a sufficient number of men to even defend themselves in battle. The king sought the counsel of God (2 Chron.20:1-22). God gave Jehoshaphat specific instructions not to fight, and told him that the battle was His. He instructed him to walk out onto the field of battle with no arms, but to praise and worship Him, and that He would battle for Jehoshaphat. In 2 Chron.20:22 we read, " As they began to sing and praise, the Lord set ambushes against the men of Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, who were invading Judah, and they were defeated." God confounded them. They could not recognize each other and each army thinking that they were facing the armies of Judah, turned on each other and destroyed each other so that not one man was left standing. Notice, it says "The Lord set ambushes"; but wait a moment, Jehoshaphat did not have enough men to use to ambush them. Where did the ambushes come from? The answer is, from The Lord. The ambushes were angelic ambushes. Now in John 14:12 we are told by Jesus that "The things that I do, you will do and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to the Father." You have a right to dispatch angels in whatever number of legions necessary, to ambush any stronghold of The Enemy, any work of The Enemy, any plan of The Enemy , any device of The Enemy. Say, " Father, by the Faith of God in Christ Jesus Name, I invite and command, decree, declare and proclaim that legions of warrior angels, in whatever numbers necessary, come forth now and ambush (speak the target of intent) and destroy the strongholds and works of Satan, confound the Enemy, throw their plans into continual confusion and disarray, and cause them to overthrow each other and combat each other until they have self-destructed all of their own works, devices, machinery, plans, and operations, and to bring them to ruin and ashes and render them powerless, confounded, and stupefied, in Christ Jesus' Name and to your Glory, so be these things now, in Christ Jesus' Mighty Name."

PRINCIPLES OF SPIRITUAL WARFARE TACTICS AND STRATEGIES

14. Cloaking- Lk.4:23-30; John 14:12;Job 22:28; Mk.11:23-24; 2 Cor.13:1; Deut.19:15; Mt.18:19

In Lk. l 4:23-30, Christ witnessed the truth of His Ministry to the people and they became enraged at Him, thinking that He was blaspheming, and it says in the narrative that they "took Him" to the edge of a nearby cliff. Young's Literal Translation of the Greek then says "to cast Him down….headlong", that is, headfirst." (Lk.4:29). It continues, "and He, having gone through the midst of them, went away." (Lk.4:30). Note that the crowd "took Him", meaning that they had their hands on Him. They were pushing Him toward the edge of the cliff. The literal Greek of The New Testament says that *they intended t*o "cast Him down, "headlong" (headfirst). The narrative then goes on to say that He went through the midst of them; the Greek word for midst, "misou", means "through the middle of". He went through the middle of them (not between them) and went away. There was no struggle. If He did it in physical form, the narrative would have described His resistance to them as He pushed many of them, some to the right and some to the left, away with His outstretched arms, to clear the way. He was invisible. This is also demonstrated in Mt. 18:19, where Jesus said,"For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, I am i*n the midst of* them." Can we see Him when two or three agree? No. Why? Because He is invisible. Some Bible scholars say that He put them under a spell to not know what He was doing. That would be witchcraft. God does not practice witchcraft. Others say, that He caused them to know who He was, and that they were frozen in awe of His majesty. What majesty? Isaiah 53:2 tells us that He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him and no beauty that we should desire Him. So that argument is done away with. Also, Why would God reveal Himself to those who did not want to know Him, particularly when Jeremiah 29:11-13 tells us that God is hidden, and that we will find Him when we search for Him with all of our heart.. Others say that some of His followers rescued Him from the crowd by engaging the crowd and distracting them so that He could escape. There is no such report of New Testament Scripture. Bible scholars have also argued that he struck masses with blindness. Really? At the edge of a cliff where many could fall off while groping their way around to find their way to safety, perhaps bumping each other off of the cliff? Many Bible scholars, agree, however, that whatever happened, it was supernatural, and that it was likely that He made Himself invisible. Why not? Does not the Scripture say that He is present an invisible when two or three are gathered in His Name? Others argue against that, stating that invisibility would be a miracle, and that the Scripture does not imply that. So which is it? I vote for "invisibility". How do I know? Through personal experience. I know with certainty that Christ "cloaked" Himself with invisibility, which is why verse 30 says, "He, having passed through the midst of them [not pushing them aside], went away.

If He had struggled to get free, as a human at the edge of the cliff, the Scripture certainly would have reported the struggle. No such event is mentioned. The implication of Scripture was that Jesus had complete control of the circumstances from the beginning, which is why He testified of Himself to the crowd, knowing that it would anger them and cause them to come against Him, but He did it anyway. Why? Because, being the Son of God in power, He knew that He could simply disappear from their grasp and walk away "in the midst of them", that is, "in the middle of" them, implying through them.

How did I get the confirmation? Through two experiences through two witnesses. The Word of God says, "Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses." (2 Cor.13:1; Deut.19:15; Mt.18:16). Nora and I are two:

1. The first experience: Nora and I were driving through a city, here in Florida around 7 P.M. on a Saturday evening, when we became hungry and decided to stop at a restaurant to eat. We went in and sat down at a table near an aisle. Waiters and waitresses kept passing by to wait on people, but after 40 minutes of waiting, we found that they kept ignoring us as they passed. We had no idea what was happening. We decided to move across the room to another table where there was more waiter traffic, thinking that it would be easier for them to see us and wait on us. Another 25 minutes passed, and no one would come to the table to wait on us. Struck by revelation, I blurted out to Nora, "Oh My God, Nora, I know what the problem is! They can't see us! Something is wrong. The Holy Spirit is protecting us from something. We need to get out of here." We got up and left the restaurant. When we got outside, the Holy Spirit directed my vision to the large restaurant sign on top of a large pillar. It had a huge circle with a 5-pointed star in the center, the international symbol of witchcraft. At the base of the circle was the name of the restaurant. We then had the realization that the desire to go to this restaurant was a seduction of Satan, and that the demonic spirits on assignment had distracted us from seeing the sign. The purpose was obvious. One of the favorite methods of doing witchcraft against people is through food witchcraft, what some call "worked food". It was Satan's plan that we ingest food upon which witchcraft had been worked. The Holy Spirit intervened and did for us what He did for Jesus at the edge of the cliff. He made us invisible. Even while passing waiters face to face on our way out, they could not see us; they appeared to look "through" us, not even saying "good night". This was our first encounter with cloaking. It was done entirely by the Holy Spirit due to our lack of experience, to protect us. God is Faithful.

2. The second experience: Nora and I had occurred about 2 months ago, during the Coronavirus Pandemic. We were away from Miami to go for Ministry to a home in the area of West Palm Beach, Florida. We had to back in Miami before a 10 p.m. curfew in effect in Miami-Dade County. However, Ministry was taking longer than expected, and we knew that we would be violating the curfew, but carrying out the work of the Holy Spirit had to take priority. We stayed and continued to minister. When the ministry was completed, it was about 11 :15 p.m.. We prayed a departing prayer with our host and said "good night". We got into our car to start the 1hr.15minute drive back to Miami. I looked at Nora and said, "Wow! We are over one hour past curfew, and have to drive through down I-95 to the Palmetto Expressway to get home, but there are usually many police cars along the way. What can we do? Then I thought, "if Jesus made Himself invisible, we can do the same thing by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, because in John 14:12, Jesus said, "The things that I do, you shall do, and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to the Father." Prompted by the Holy Spirit, I said to Nora, "I've got a revelation from The Holy Spirit that we are to declare ourselves invisible from here, all the way to our driveway in Miami, using "the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name." Nora agreed. We prayed in agreement, " Father, Nora and I agree and decree, declare and proclaim this car completely invisible, praying a hedge of protection around us all the way home; we decree that no one can see us or identify us, especially police vehicles, in Christ Jesus' Name." We started out on our trip which was uneventful until we reached the Palmetto Expressway in North Miami. We were driving in the right lane. After about 5 miles of driving, while Nora was driving with her head forward, looking at the road, ahead, I happened to turn my head to the left to look out the driver's side window. There to my surprise was a Florida State Police car driving parallel with us. The police officer was looking straight ahead, ignoring us. He kept driving at the same speed we were driving at. I asked Nora, "What is he doing, he has been driving parallel with us for about 3 miles." She said, "I don't know." Then, he started to move closer to the driver's side door, would weave slightly away, then would come back, and repeat it again. Each time, the handle of the police car's right front door would get closer to the handle of Nora's driver's side door on our left. I freaked out and yelled to Nora, "Oh my God, he's trying to change lanes and he doesn't see us. The weaving of his car was due to the angels we had prayed around our car, pushing his car away from ours each time he tried to come into the right lane. We continued to drive parallel without him looking at us. To him, there was nothing on the side of him. He had come within 6 inches of our door handle, traveling 70 miles per hour. Then, he all of a sudden tried to move into our right lane, again, and came so close to the side of our car, that his right door handle was only about 3 inches from our left door handle. I screamed to Nora, "Cut the breaks, quick, he's going to sideswipe us!. Nora jammed her foot on the break and dropped back quickly, and the Policeman immediately cut in front of us with only about 6 inches between the back of his police car and our front bumper. We both fell back against our seats, giving God glory! The policeman could not see us. We were invisible to him. Mark 11:23-24 says "Speak to the mountain. If you say to the mountain, "Be uprooted and cast into the sea, believing without doubt in your heart, you will have whatsoever you say." Well, we had "whatsoever" we said-in agreement. Jesus said, "If two or three come together to touch and agree upon anything upon the earth, I will grant what you ask." Again, Jesus was granting what we asked and decreed.

What did we learn from all of this? That we can decree invisibility and God performs it because He performs His Word. We also learned that you cannot play with invisibility, it can be very dangerous, if not life-threatening.

These two experiences, permitted us to "reverse engineer" what Jesus did in Lk.4:29-30. Why? The answer is, as I said before, that Jesus said that we would do what He does, and greater things than these would we do. (John14:12). If we would decree ourselves invisible, it was because Jesus had done so, first. This proved, that in Lk. 4:29-30, He had made Himself invisible, and walked through the people and away from them. The amazing thing was, that it was not hard for Jesus, who is God, along with the Father and The Holy Spirit, to do that; it also was not hard for us to do it. It was done by decree, backed by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name." In Job 22:28, The Holy Spirit said, "You will decree a thing and *it will be established for you." God performs His Word (Jer.1:12)

So, in summary, we teach, based on the Word and experiences through the Holy Spirit:
There are two kinds of invisibility:
a. spontaneous- provided by the Holy Spirit for protection of the believer.
b. decreed-by the believer for protection or to carry out a work for The Kingdom of God, or for His purposes, or a spiritual assignment.

It is not hard for God to make you invisible, just as it is not hard to give you revelation. All things are easy for Him. He wants you to trust on Him and believe to receive.

The Cloaking Prayer:

" Father, I (we) decree, declare and proclaim ourselves invisible and inaudible to Satan, all principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness, wicked spirits in high places, all territorial spirits, familiar spirits, elemental spirits, Strongman spirits, all ancestral spirits, alien entities, all who project, all on assignment against us, all monitoring-surveillance-reporting-or recording spirits, all eavesdroppers, scanners, divination and watcher spirits, all tabber- tracker-trapper-and traveler spirits, doorkeeper and gatekeeper spirits, and all on assignment, all above, around and below the Strongman, all entities not of the Holy Spirit: we bind and break their powers, communication lines, supply lines, and reinforcements, and loose myself (ourselves) from them immediately, completely, permanently and perpetually, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. We decree, declare and proclaim that they cannot see, hear, or understand what we say or do. We cloak ourselves in every way, manner and form, and decree ourselves continually and completely invisible, inaudible, inaccessible, unapproachable, non-locatable, and undetectable in whatever we do, say, pray, or action we take, and break off all monitoring devices of The Enemy, including all implants, microchips, vaccines, bio-bots, cyborgs, alien entities, walk-in's, log-in's nanotechnologies, smart devices, 5G radiations, RF radiations, EMF and ELF radiations, chem-trail emissions, trans-humanist technologies and artificial intelligences and their devices, and all other alien or deep state or NWO technologies or diseases, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. We uproot them, cut them off, curse them at the roots, return them on the heads of the senders, permanently deactivate them and decree them permanently not replaceable, binding up and off any and all newer or different hostile, unholy technologies, from myself (and others by name), and down the fire of God on each and every one of them and their sources and originators and inventors, calling all done by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name and to Your Glory, Father, so be these things, and it is all so, now, in Christ Jesus' Name."

Requirements: born-again experience, baptism in the Holy Spirit and yielding to Him as an empty vessel for His use , unwavering faith, using "the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name", trusting the Word of God, believing without doubt and holy expectation to receive. Practice. To see cloaking work, you do not need great faith in God; you need faith in a Great God. It is another exercise in co-operation.

15. Dealing with Spiritual Trespassers and Intruders:

Man is trans-dimensional, made up of spirit, soul, and body. The spirit-man is the conscience and intuition, that is, your "knower", represented by the Greek word, "pneuma" in the New Testament, which means "breath". The soul-man is the mind, will, and emotions, represented by the New Testament Greek word "psuche" (pronounced "soo-kay"). The spirit-man "perceives", it just "knows". The soul-man "thinks", it uses reason and logic. The body is the physical man, the temple of the Holy Spirit, often confused with "the flesh", as used in Galatians 5:17 that tells us, ""For the flesh sets its desires against the Spirit and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please." What, then, is the "flesh". It is not the body. The Greek word for "body" is "soma". The Greek word for "flesh" is "sarx". The Holy Spirit makes a distinction between the two. The word "sarx", in the New Testament Greek for "flesh", means "a lifestyle of thinking that agrees with sin." These concepts are necessary to understand the dynamics of spiritual attack on spirit, soul, or body.

spirit-man projection: In the born-again Christian, the spirit-man may project, particularly in night-visions (dreams), usually communications with other Spirit-filled Christians. An example of this is Acts 16:9 which says, "During the night Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." Notice that the Christian believer talked to Paul in the vision through his spirit-projection to Paul. Projection of the spirit-man in an unbeliever or unsaved person cannot occur because their spirit-man is dead through sin, and needs to be resurrected through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit entering and residing in it through the born-again experience.

If Christians project, it is, in my experience always spirit projection, not soul-projection. Why? The answer is that Christ indwells our spirit-man and where Christ is, there can be no evil or evil forces. Usually, spirit-projection occurs without the believer who is projecting not even knowing it, and often not having a recall of it, at least not until afterwards. When it occurs, it is because it serves God's purposes. I will give illustrations shortly. Soul-projection is dangerous because the soul is not yet saved, meaning that demonic forces can have access to it as easily as the Holy Spirit does. During soul-projection, demonic attacks are not at all infrequent.

A second illustration of spirit-projection is seen in Acts 8:26-27, Phillip is instructed by an angel to "arise and go toward the south in the way that goes down to Jerusalem and then, Gaza (v.26); he arose and went (v.27). It then says "and, behold, a man of Ethiopia". He was suddenly there, nearby, and runs to the man; he speaks to him and ministered the Word to him, following which the man received Christ and Phillip baptized him in a nearby body of water. At the end of ministry, it says that "the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phillip, that the eunuch saw him no more; and he (the eunuch) went on his way, rejoicing, but Phillip was found at Azotus. (v.39-40). He was in spirit and body transported to another location. I believe this is describing spirit-projection with translocation of his body. Here is the reason why: In verses 26 and 27, it says "Arise", and "he arose", respectively. The New Testament Greek word for "arise" and its past form, "arose", is the Greek word "anastemi" (Strong's Number G350), meaning, to cause to rise up, to cause to appear". It's components are the preposition "ana", meaning "into the midst", and the verb "histemi", meaning "to stand" (literal), or "do not waiver" (figurative). The sense of those verses in the context of the chapter is that the angel instructed Phillip to "go on the road to Jerusalem that leads to Gaza, "to appear into the midst [presence] of [the eunuch]. (Strong's Numbers G303 and G2476). The Chapter goes on to say that after the baptism, Phillip was "carried away" by the Spirit (v.39) and was "found at" Azotus. (v.40) Here, the verb "carried away" in the New Testament Greek is the verb "herpasen" (from "harpazo"), meaning "forcibly taken" or "snatched away" (by The Spirit of God).[Strong's Number G726). It then says he was "found at" Azotus. This Greek verb, "heurethe" literally means "to be found", to be discovered". (Strong's Number G2147). Phillip is suddenly taken up in-the-spirit and relocated at Azotus. He is taken up by the spirit. Jesus said in John 3:6 that "the things of the flesh are flesh, and the things of the Spirit are spirit." The Scripture implies that it was instantaneous that he was at Azotus, which means that there was probably an element of time travel involved.

soul-man projection: the practice of soul-projection is almost exclusively by occultists such as witches, warlocks, shamans, mages, sorcerers, pagan priests or priestesses, Satanists, New Age practitioners, or practitioners of Eastern religions. It is very dangerous. In Ezekiel 13:20 we read," Wherefore thus says the Lord, "Behold, I am against your pillows, by which you, there, hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that you hunt to make them fly." The Hebrew verb "to make to fly" is "parach" and it literally means " to fly", "to break out". (Strong's Number H6524). Yes, the soul can be made to project or "fly" out of the body.

When the soul projects out of the body, the person projecting usually lies down on a floor or a couch, concentrates and sets his/her will on "pushing" or projecting the soul outward. The soul, upon leaving the body, remains connected to the body, usually at the level of the umbilicus by a psychic cord called the silver cord, a soul cord that keeps the body alive while it is projecting out of the body. It is mentioned in Ecclesiastes 12:6-7. The soul projection may be either human or an extraterrestrial alien entity. Humans have a "silver cord". Extraterrestrial alien entities claim to have a "golden" cord, and if and when you encounter them, usually in a deliverance session, you will find them bold and arrogant. They can be violent, so the very first thing you must do is to bind them up and off from being violent in any way, manner or form, in the Name of Christ Jesus, and decree retaliations forbidden in the Name of Christ Jesus. They refer to themselves as "kings", "queens", Chief-princes, Princes and "gods". I once cast out by the Spirit of God, an entity that called itself "Horus-Ra", the sun-god of Egypt, and at another time, "Brahma", the supreme god of the Hindu's was cast out, just as easily as any other garden-variety demon. Soul-projectors can project very great distances, even around the world. Occultists claim to draw energy for soul power from Ley Lines, a psychic grid that they claim encompasses the Earth for them to draw energy from to travel at great speeds wherever they want to go.

Here are some examples of Projections:

a. A soul projector makes the mistake of visiting my house:

About 15 years ago or so, I was at home on a sunny, Thursday morning. I was walking into my bedroom, and upon doing so, I immediately perceived in my spirit-man, the "idea of a presence". That was the Holy Spirit witnessing to me that there was a spiritual intruder in my home. I stopped with my arms crossed and just waited, standing firm. I could perceive by The Holy Spirit that it was exactly 6 feet away. It moved two feet closer, than, again, another two feet closer until it was right in front of my face. I could not see the entity. It then moved forward and pressed itself onto my chest wall, then through my chest wall, and I felt it enter my body. I remained silent. It spoke to me in my mind and said " I am a master warlock and I am here to show you my power." I replied, " Oh, you are, are you? Well, I am a son of the Most High God of Israel, and I am here to show you my power, and if you do not leave me and this house on the count of three, I am going to cut your silver cord, and your body is going to die wherever it is lying down as you project." The warlock immediately panicked and said, " No! No! Don't do that! I'm leaving! I'm leaving!!", and he exited from my body. I counted "1-2-3" and there was no reaction. He departed. If you cut their silver cord, their body dies immediately before they can get back into it. Remember, people who project to you or into you are not your friends. They are there to harm. Old Testament Scripture (The Law) says "You will not suffer [permit] a witch to live." (Exodus 22:18). Being unsaved, they are not under grace, but under Law. I never heard from this projector again. He had enough sense to stay away-either that or maybe he died by challenging another informed Christian.

b. another soul-projector, after being warned by me, makes the mistake of bringing his entire coven against me:

Another soul-projector enters my home about 15 years ago and gets a warning from me leave on the count of three, or I would cut his silver cord. He leaves immediately, but the following day, another projector projects into my home. You can always tell when they are projecting into your home. When they break through a portal into the house, you will hear a "popping" sound or a sound like two saltine crackers being broken while being held close to a microphone. Sometimes it is louder than others. That is the first warning of a spiritual intruder who is projecting. Others can enter quietly. Well, this projector departed, but over the next 3 days, there were 3 more projectors, and I gave a warning to each to leave on the count of three. But they would not stay away. I decided to get tough with them. When the 4th projector came, a day later, I gave him the count-of-three warning to leave and instructed him to go back to his group and tell them that anyone who would try to project after today would be greeted with my cutting their silver cords, in Christ Jesus' Name. Over the next 4 days, there were 4 more projectors. Each day, when I perceived their arrival, I did not warn them. I immediately said, aloud, "I cut your silver cord, in the Name of Christ Jesus". After doing the same to the 3 more projectors that followed, everything stopped. No more projectors. I wonder "Why"? Lesson: Never be kind to the agents of The Enemy. They are on assignment to harm you and your loved ones. They do not understand love or compassion. They come to kill, steal and destroy.(John 10:10). Remember how to get rid of them-simply decree and declare: "I cut your silver cord in the Name of Christ Jesus." If you discern that an extraterrestrial alien has visited your home, you say the same, except it is the golden cord you are cutting: " I cut your golden cord, in the Name of Christ Jesus." Sometimes, you may hear an agonal scream in your thoughts as they die.

c. human-spirit projection:

This is an example of my spirit projecting to someone many years ago. I was at home one Thursday night, in Miami, Florida, when around eight o'clock at night, I receive a phone call from a former patient that I had treated when I was a Professor of Neurosurgery at ORU School of Medicine, there. The woman asked if I remembered her. I had also treated her mother. I replied that I did remember her. She said, " May I ask you a question?" I said, "Certainly". She proceeded to say " Were you in my living room, here in Tulsa, this evening?" I was startled by the question. I replied, "No, I was not there." She replied, "Oh yes you were!" She then told me an amazing story. She said, "I was sitting in my living room about 7 p.m. reading my Bible while sitting in a chair. The Bible was in my lap and I was having trouble trying to find a scripture that I wanted to read. All of a sudden, I felt your presence in the room. I looked up and to my left, and there you were-standing in my living room, dressed in a suit and tie. You did not say anything. You walked over to me and stood before the Bible which was upside down from where you were looking at it. You flipped several pages, then put your finger on a verse on a page you had flipped to, and pointed to the verse I was looking for! I looked down and was shocked. I, then, looked up to speak to you but you had disappeared. I took my Bible and ran to my car, and drove to my mother's house down the street. I walked in and found her sitting in her living room, reading her Bible. I said, "Mom, can I talk to you for a moment." She said "Yes, come in." I sat with her and told her the entire story. I then asked, "Mom, do you believe me?" She replied, "Oh, yes, I believe you." I was surprised. I said "You do? Why?" She replied, " I was sitting here in my living room earlier this evening, looking for a scripture in my Bible that I could not find. I happened to look up, and there he was, dressed in a suit and tie, and looking at me with a smile. I was astonished. He walked over to where I was sitting, reached down and flipped several pages of my Bible, then pointed his finger to a scripture, and there it was-the scripture I was looking for. I looked up and he was gone." So this former patient of mine said, "Not only were you in my house tonight, but you were also in my mother's house, tonight. We both saw you hear." I did not quite understand at that time, what she had experienced, but I told her that I believed her and respected her story, and that I would seek the Holy Spirit to know more on it. Over several years, the revelation was given me by the Holy Spirit, that he had used my spirit-man to project to them for his purposes. When my spirit left my body, I was totally unaware of it. Yet, it happened and it bore good fruit. Jesus said that we know if something is of God by the fruit . Fruit is the only criterion. This was an example of spirit-projection, established through the testimony of two Spirit-filled witnesses.

d. another human-spirit projection:

Some years ago, a woman came to our Ministry in Miami from Saudi Arabia, for deliverance from demonic oppression. After telling me her history of events, I told her that I believed that she had cursed objects in her house, objects that have demonic spirits attached to them in order to gain entry to a home, in order to minister to the residents. I said to her, "Wait a moment. Let me see and look around." In front of Nora and the visitor, I went in the spirit to Saudi Arabia to her home. God opened up my spirit-vision and as my spirit-man walked her house, I described in detail, each and every room of the first floor of her home, and in the living room, saw an object hanging from the ceiling. I accurately described it to the visitor, and she acknowledged that it was there and that the description was accurate. It was a cursed object. I told her it must be destroyed. I then went outside of the house, in the vision, and I described the upstairs patio of the front of her house. I told her that it had a white picket fence. She said, "Yes, that's correct." By this time, both Nora and she were amazed at the experience. The vision faded and my spirit-man returned. I was not shaken. We had solved the problem of the source of the oppression. I gave her instructions on how to destroy cursed objects. I told her that after she got rid of it, that she would be feeling much better and restored . I told her to email, write or call me, if she does not hold her deliverance. She promised me that she would. I cautioned her to walk by faith and not by sight. She apparently did quite well because she never had a need to return or call. Praise God!Again, we judge something if it be of God, by the fruit, the Scripture says. Notice that when moving in-the-Spirit, the spirit and soul are always in the active state. The mind is always alert and the spirit is always perceiving. Things of the darkness work just the opposite. In order to experience dark things, such as occult experiences, occultists must use things such as drugs, hallucinogenic drugs, techniques of meditation or concentration that make the mind passive in order to still the mind of thoughts-all of which are an invitation for demonic entry. Passivity of mind and eastern meditation is an open door to the demonic. Be forewarned. The things of God always occur with the mind active. Notice in this experience and the one above, that my mind and spirit were active and ministering to the people involved at all times.

Summary: Human spirit-projection, as exemplified by Scripture and experience is Godly and God-ordained and God-operated. You may know you are in the experience or you may not know. If you do not know, God will usually follow with a witness to tell you, thereafter.

Human soul-projection is occult, dangerous, and usually performed by those who are in the occult or New Age. They commonly project into people's homes without being invited. That is arrogant presumption and demonstrates that they do not respect your privacy, they do not respect your property, and that they are not your friend. Spiritually, they are of The Enemy. If they are alien, the Holy Spirit will witness it to you. In almost all instances, they are there to harm. Again, they are not your friends.

What to do: If they are human projectors, decree, "I cut your silver cord in Christ Jesus' Name. So be it."
If they are alien projectors, decree, "I cut your golden cord, in Christ Jesus' Name. So be it."

16. How To Use and Release the Breaker Anointing: Micah 2:13

"The One who breaks open the way will go up before them;
they will break through the gate and go out.
Their King will pass through before them,
the Lord at their head."

The Breaker Anointing is a very special anointing for BREAKTHROUGH. When difficult circumstances or problems arise in which there is little or no breakthrough through prayer, the Breaker Anointing released upon the circumstance or problem "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name" will bring the breakthrough in almost all circumstances. Your faith empowers the prayer. There are circumstances where God does not act to give relief from a problem or test because He is using it to mold us, form us, break us, make us into His Image and likeness. When He achieves what He was using the circumstance for, the breakthrough usually comes quickly. Notice what the verses say:

"The One" is Jesus.
He breaks open the way. He busts through the obstruction.
He goes on before us, once we invoke the Breaker Anointing and release it on the circumstance.
He causes us to break through the gate, the way out.
King Jesus goes ahead of us.
Father God ahead of everyone.

Prayer to release the Breaker Anointing:

Father, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, I invoke and release the Breaker Anointing upon this circumstance/problem of _____(name and describe the issue)_____, and I decree, declare and proclaim on my behalf, or on behalf of (names), that the Lord Christ Jesus goes forth, ahead of us now to break open the gate of hindrance or obstruction. I give thanks and praise, Father, that the Lord Jesus goes through ahead of us, with You at the head to lead us through the gates to victory, and give you the Glory ahead of time, Father, that we break through and go out to our possession, to our healing, to our deliverance from that adverse circumstance, and take possession of all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it. I give you thanks, praise, glory, honor, worship and blessing, Father, Lord Jesus, and Holy Spirit, all in Christ Jesus' Mighty Name, Amen."

Pray this prayer through, daily, until the breakthrough comes, no matter how long it takes. The 19th century saints of God referred to that practice as "praying through" until the result manifested or actualized, or until they felt a "release" from the Holy Spirit that the prayer was answered in the Spirit realm, and that the release of the answer was coming. This is also a great prayer to use in altar warfare against demonic altars (see and download my book, "My Chains Are Gone" in the book section of our website at www.walkinginpower.org, free of charge). Resistant or aggressive demonic altars, in particular, can be made to fall and be destroyed by using this Breakthrough prayer, following which, after praying them down through the prayers in the book, you can call down the fire of God upon them after releasing the Breaker Anointing against the demonic altar.
Always give thanksgiving, praise, glory, honor, worship and blessing to Father, the Lord Jesus, and the Holy Spirit after receiving your breakthrough.

Using The Breaker Anointing

The purpose of the Breaker Anointing is to break through a circumstance or situation to make a way where there does not seem to be a way, a way out of difficulties so that you can pursue your "star", your purpose and destiny in Christ. You must know who you are in Christ and the authority that He has given you. In Genesis, God told Adam and Eve to take dominion over all of the earth and to subdue it and replenish it. (Gen.1:28) That means that you have inherited, delegated power and authority of Christ, to rule over the Earth and all that there is therein. It's in the Bible. The Christ repeats it in the New Testament, " I give you, power to trample over serpents and scorpions {the Devil, his fallen angels, demons], and authority over ALL the power of The Enemy [that would include Satan, himself,]and nothing by any means shall harm you." (Lk.10:19) You have the incredible power of The Holy Spirit delegated to you, from both the Old and New Testaments! Christ's sovereignty, empowerment, ability to take authority and dominion is delegated to you and is upon you. You must remind yourself of this. Now look at this:

2 Sam.5:17-19
17 When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek out David; and when David heard of it, he went down to the stronghold. 18 Now the Philistines came and spread themselves out in the valley of Rephaim. 19 Then David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?" And the Lord said to David, "Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand."

David was seeking breakthrough from God. Why? Because the pursuit of breakthrough was a lifestyle for David, a state of being in which he lived. It must be that way for us as New Testament people, for the Scripture tells us, "For we go from faith to faith, glory to glory." In modern English, the Holy Spirit tells us, "For we go from test to test, victory to victory." (Ro.1:17; 2Cor.3:16-18). Then, the Scripture tells us, "The Kingdom of God suffers violence [spiritual violence] and the [spiritually] violent take it by force." (Mt.11:12)

So why is it that Christians , so often, have trouble getting breakthroughs in their lives? Ask yourself these questions about yourself:

1. Am I spiritually assertive, enough? Within each Christian there is a holy, assertive, spiritual violence or passion to react, within, to be released to make you assertive and passionate in your breakthrough prayers. Are you using it?
2. Is your heart burning with passion that the light within you shines for The Enemy to see, so that it wants to run from you? There are two requirements for the light of your spirit-man to burn bright before the eyes of The Enemy:
    1. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
    2. The Fire of the Holy Spirit and a thirst for the things of God.
    3. " Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it will be opened up to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks, finds, and he who knocks, it will be opened unto him....."For you receive not because you ask not." (Mt.7:7,8)

Ask Father God to baptize you in The Holy Spirit and Fire , without doubting, and He will. Wait for the manifestation of the gifts and fire, believe and receive "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name." (Lk.11:10-13) Step out in faith and use (declare "release upon") " in Jesus' Name."

Axioms on the Applying the Breaker Anointing

1. Bring the Breaker Anointing to dead circumstances, spiritually dead people, and spiritually dead places. Remember, Jesus in The Breaker. When the Breaker comes on the scene, dead things come to life. Dead marriages come to life. Dead businesses come to life. Dead families come to life. Dead bodies come to life. Dead interests come to life. Dead futures come to life. Dead health comes to life. Dead relationships come to life. Dead talents come to life. Dead finances come to life. Dead works come to life. Dead ministries come to life. Dead churches come to life. Change comes. Shaking comes. Fire comes. Set Holy Spirit Fire on everything that you lay hands on. Slap your hands on something and say aloud, "Fire fall in Christ Jesus' Name." or lay hands on someone and say aloud, "I release the Breaker Anointing on you in Christ Jesus' Name." Or

" I release an open heart on you- Fire and Light of Christ, enter now in Christ Jesus' Name." Your job is to be fervent and on fire to release The Breaker Anointing on someone or something. How they or it responds is between them and God. You are just a delivery boy. Scripture says ".....be it done to you according to your faith." (Mt.8:29)

Speak the Breaker Anointing release upon others or yourself: say aloud, "Heart be open, and Light of Christ, come in now by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name."

2. When you practice releasing the Breaker Anointing, and see the results over time as you repeat the release over and upon people, it will expose to you your previous passivity.
3. Understand that the manifestation of the Breaker Anointing means the Presence of Christ's Holy Spirit. Christ, Himself is on the scene. Practice and become addicted to The Presence of The Spirit, cry out to Father God, " Father, I desire the Fire of Your Holy Spirit, let your Fire fall upon me." Keep asking. Keep asking. Keep asking. Believe you receive and it will happen.
4. Often Christians do not see breakthrough because of a lack of passion, or lack of conviction that God will act. Walking by sight and not by faith. We must walk by faith and not by sight! (2 Cor.5:7)
5. What to do? Nave's Topical Bible is very helpful here. You look up a topic to find out what the Scriptures say about your condition or your circumstances. Get into The Word. He is watching over His Word to perform it. (Jer.1:12)Speak it, apply it, release it over your circumstances or the circumstances or condition of others.
6. Now watch this: What God says in His Word about you or your circumstances, determines the extent of "the breakthrough".

He may never come when you want Him, but will always be there when you need Him and He's always right on time, and always has the final say!

17. Spiritual warfare against Psychic(Mental/Emotional) Attacks (or physical attacks):

There are a variety of psychic attacks from Satan. Chronic headaches for which the doctors can find no cause, and all medical tests were normal (Praise God!), strange migrating pains over different parts of the body that never seem to go away, tormenting thoughts that harass, discourage and depress, chronic fears for which there does not seem to be relief, the idea of a presence in the bedroom at night, touch sensations against your body while awake or asleep, visible spirits in the house at night or during the day, barrages of thoughts arising in the mind and coming at you intensely from all directions, all talking at the same time, making you want to scream-what we call a "polar bear attack", so-called "things that go "bump" in the night, fearful, unaccounted for noises, recurrent night terrors or nightmares, repetitive touch sensations against your body, repeated visitations from so-called dead relatives, repeated whisperings in the ears, repeated chronic illnesses, habitual excessive eating, persistent suicidal thoughts, persistent voices (external to your ears or in your thoughts) that continually tell you bad things about yourself, chronic repetitive thoughts of death or fear of death, chronic repetitive thoughts of shame, blame, or guilt, or self-condemnation, chronic deprecating thoughts of low self-esteem, feelings of inadequacy, insecurity, anxiety or panic attacks, chronic paranoia for no reason, chronic irrational thoughts that scare or threaten, habitual sinful habits, "driving" behaviors urging to take an action that may be inappropriate, compulsive behaviors, and any other behaviors or problems that serve to torment. These are all various ways The Enemy tramples the believer because The Enemy knows that they do not know how to overcome.

Principle for Overcoming: You cannot conquer what you do not confront, and you cannot confront what you do not identify. You must search out your personal and family histories, and spouses'.

A. First and foremost, you must operate in The Believer's Authority in Christ and know who you are in Christ:

1. You are the Head and Not the Tail (Deut.28:13)- you have power over Satan.
2. Christ has given you all power over the Enemy, nothing shall harm you. (Lk.10:19)
3. You have the power to Bind Satan, fallen angels, demons and loose yourself/others. (Mt.16:16; Mt. 18:19)
4. Satan and all under him must obey your every command given "in the Name of Christ Jesus", (Lk.10:17)
5. "You will decree (declare, proclaim) a thing [in line with God's Word]. And it will be established for you." (Job 22:28)
6. Whatever you bind in the Name of Christ Jesus will be bound; whatever you loose, in the Name of Christ Jesus, will be loosed. (Mt.16:19; Mt. 18:19)
7. Pick up the Shield of Faith with which to quench every fiery dart (attack) of The Enemy, Not some of them-ALL of them. (Eph. 6:16)
8. Submit to God, daily-resist the Devil and he will FLEE from you. (James 4:7)
9. No weapon formed against you shall prosper and every voice that is raised against you shall be ashamed, for this is the inheritance of the servants of the Lord, and their vindication is of Me, says The Lord." (Isa. 54:17)
10. "When the Enemy comes in, like a FLOOD the Spirit of The Lord raises a standard against them." (Isa.59:1
11. You have commanding power over the Enemy. (Job 22:28;Mk.11:23-24;Prov.18:21.You can command angels to aid you. (Heb.1:14; Ps.103L20; Ps.91) You are seated with Christ in heavenly places. You speak and battle from the position of your heavenly authority (Eph.2:6)
12. You are God's battle-axe, His weapon of war. With you He will shatter nations and destroy kingdoms. (Jer.51:20)

B. . In Mt. 3:10-11, Jesus said, "A good tree brings forth good fruit and an evil tree brings forth evil fruit; a good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit and an evil tree cannot bring forth good fruit-put the axe to the root." In other words, Jesus was saying that in all spiritual problems, identify the root cause or source first, then put the "axe" to it. What is the "axe"? Jeremiah 51:20 says "You are my battle axe, my weapon of war." The axe is the anointed believer, the believer who is born-again, baptized in the Holy Spirit, and Spirit-filled and Spirit-led.

a. Isaiah 10:27 says "The anointing destroys the yoke (the bondage). How do you get the anointing to destroy all bondages?

1. get born-again (John 3: 3,5)
2. get the baptism in the Holy Spirit and the gifts of the Spirit: Acts 1:8;Acts 6:14-17: Lk.11:1-13, 1 Cor.12.
3. go to our website at www.walkinginpower.org. It will open to our Homepage. Scroll up and down until you see a block of words "Basic Training". Click on it to open. It will take you to a section that contains a series of basic audio teachings that every Christian should know. Listen to the audio teachings on "Getting Saved and Knowing That You Are" , and "The Baptism in The Holy Spirit." You must receive the born-again experience and baptism in the Holy Spirit in order to overcome and walk a victorious Christian life in the power to overcome. The Scripture says "What is it that overcomes: our Faith".

b. Put on the Full Armor of God, daily:

Pray aloud: "Father, I put on the full armor of God: the helmet of salvation, Lord Jesus, for You are my salvation; the breast plate of righteousness, for You are my righteousness, Lord Jesus. I put on the belt of truth for You are my truth, Lord Jesus, and shod my feet in the shoes of the Gospel of peace, for You are my Peace, Lord Jesus. In my left hand I pick up the Shield of Faith, with which to quench every fiery dart (attack) of The Enemy, for You are my Faith, Lord Jesus, and in my right hand the Sword of The Spirit which is the Word of God, for You are the Word, Lord Christ. I cover myself this day with Your Precious Blood, from the top of my head to the tips of my toes-all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, Amen."

c. Make sure that you are positioned in the right place with God:

Moses said to God, "I want to see your Glory." God replied that Moses could not see His face, for no one has ever seen His face and lived, but that Moses could see His back when He passed by. He gave Moses an instruction:

"The Lord said, "Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand there on the rock;" (Exo.33:21)

Get in your right place, and God tells the Enemy, "You can't touch him. You can't touch her."

Proper placement releases supernatural blessing, power, position, provision and protection.

The right place is the place of spiritual and temporal harvest.

The righty place is the place of deliverance.

The right place is the place of healing.

The right place is the place on the Rock, and the Rock is Christ Jesus-being born-again.

Father God is saying, that when you are positioned in the right place, when you are positioned in Christ Jesus, you are positioned near Me, standing on the Rock, My Son, you will be able to see ME, says the Lord. (Jesus said, "He who has seen me has seen The Father.")

Scripture says that when Moses was in the right place, He saw God. Scripture says that when Elijah got in the right place, the blessing came.

You are seated in heavenly places to trample The Enemy when you are in the right place- what Is the right place: being on The Rock, in Christ, born-again and spirit-filled: then you will see Father God as never before. It won't come to you through impotent, powerless, tradition-bound religion. Religion has nothing to offer you. It never did. Christ alone, by grace alone, by faith alone, by the Word, The Water and The Blood, alone-is the Right Place, the position that permits you to see The Father, the One who anoints to destroy the Yoke of bondage.

Young's Literal Translation of the Bible says:

Yahweh also says, "Behold, a place is by Me, and you have stood on the rock."

God is saying, "When you have stood on the Rock which is Christ, you have a place by Me."

Ephesians 6:13 tells us: " Wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

d. Eliminate legal grounds for the sources of the psychic or physical attacks to stand. Examine yourself for any of the following and deal with them through confession, repentance, and take action:

1. Look for legal grounds. (ROOTS) for the Enemy to stand:
   a. practice of personal habitual sin-it sets up a demonic altar against you.
   b. practice of iniquities by ancestors or predecessors on all sides of your mother's or father's two families or those of your spouse, or any person of your past with whom you may have had an intimate relationship.
   c. demonic altars working against you through ancestral practices of iniquities.
   d. generations' curses.
   e. curses formed against you, spoken over you, or directed at you by others.
   f. self-inflicted curses.
   g. workings of witchcraft, sorcery, magic or other occult practices revealed by the Holy Spirit.
   h. possession of cursed objects in the home or office.
   i. unholy interests or practices: pornography, perversions, etc.
   j. practice of idolatry- intellectual, self, objects, money, possessions, religious
   k. marijuana addiction
   l. drug addictions
   m. other legal grounds as revealed by the Holy Spirit (yield to Him and ask).

e. Deliverance-getting set free:

1. For most, deliverance is a process. To get to the place of blessing, the right place, you have to hold on and trust the process.
2. The process by which you can obtain self-deliverance by the Holy Spirit is provided by our Ministry through the Book Section, Video teachings, and Audio teaching sections of our Ministry.
3. In particular, please go to the Book Section for a free download of our latest self-deliverance book, "My Chains Are Gone" which will show you how to get set free by applying the principles of self-deliverance through confession and repentance of ancestral sin and all like sins of your own, and by breaking demonic altars and generations' curses that bind the person to a demonic altar, the source of repeated sin and spiritual attacks. Also see the book, "Take Possession of Your Healing and Deliverance", which includes a Spiritual Inventory to uncover little known or forgotten legal grounds, personal or familial that need confession and repentance.
4. Jesus said "……...be it done to you according to your faith."
5. Be Patient, use unwavering faith (Ja.1:6,7), and walk by faith and not by sight. (2 Cor.5:7)

18. Destroying Cursed Objects: (Josh. 6:17,18; Josh. 7:1,11,12,13,15, Josh.22:20; 1Chron.2:7, Exo.22:20, Deut.13:12-18; Nu.18:14; Judges 17:2; Acts 19:19

> "..... Thus says the God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of you, O Israel; you cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the accursed thing from among you." (Joshua 7:13)

Cursed objects are Satan's Trojan Horses. God says that if you do not get the cursed object out of your presence and possession, you cannot stand against your Enemy. Who is your Enemy? Satan. You cannot stand against Satan! He has a right to have a "shot" at you.

In this day and age, almost everyone has at least one cursed object in their home, and it more likely that there are many. There are at least 14 verses on cursed objects in the Bible, 13 in the Old Testament and 1 in the New Testament. The words "cursed objects" do not occur in the Bible. The reason for that is that we are dealing with languages (Hebrew and Greek), that are 6000 and 2000 years old, respectively, and the terms used to identify them are not what we call them in the English language. What they are called vary with the Bible translation that you are using. In some Bibles, cursed objects are called “devoted things” or “things devoted to destruction”. In other Bibles, they are called “accursed things”, or “things under the ban”. Why the different terminology from Bible to Bible? It has to do with Copyright Law and avoiding plagiarism. If one publisher's translation was the first to use “devoted things”, and a second publisher wanted to print a newer edition of the Bible, if that publisher also used “devoted things” to represent cursed objects in his translation, he would be violating the copyright of the original publisher, committing the infraction of plagiarism with all of its legal difficulties. What is important, regardless of whatever Bible edition you are using, is that you remember that in your Bible Edition, if you come across the words “devoted things”, “things devoted to destruction”, “things under the ban”, or “accursed things”, that the words are all referring to cursed objects.

So what are cursed objects? Cursed objects are objects to which Satan attaches a demonic spirit as a point of contact for the purpose of gaining entry to a home, where, if possessed and kept there, the demonic spirit has a legal right to be there because of the willingness of the person to keep it and own it. It gives the spirit the opportunity, if not the right, to minister to the thought-life of the person, or against his/her body, for the purpose of carrying out an assignment of Satan against the person and his/her family. Cursed objects are dangerous. An object is considered a cursed object, not by what it is used for, today, but by what its original dedication/use was. This is important to know. Sometimes, you may have to investigate the historical origin of such an object, such as dolls, that were original invented by witches to represent people that they wanted to do harm-witchcraft upon. The presence of an unrecognized curse object in the house can cause a person to loose their life. Cursed objects come in many forms: One of the commonest are household knick-knacks used for decorative purposes. They are three-dimensional graven images. That means that in God's eyes they are idols. All items associated with the practice of witchcraft, sorcery, magic, Freemasonry, occult works, religion and religious objects of any kind, amulets, charms, occult or New Age jewelry, anything to do with the New Age, including books and magazines, pornography, video games that have to do with power, control or domination of others, or violence, war, superheroes, dolls (origin-witchcraft), colored beads or bracelets, certain antiques, certain books according to subject (occult, sexual, etc.), archeological artifacts of shamanic cultures who worshiped “nature spirits”, jewelry, rings, necklaces, bracelets, earrings, or properties of unsaved dead family members, grotesque paintings with morbid or occult themes, religious items such as wooden crosses or crucifixes used by many Christians and churches, with or without the carved corpus of the representation of Christ on them: remember, it is not the cross that is important but the work of the cross done by Christ Jesus' that is important. The cross, historically, is a cursed object because it was an instrument of torture that originated in Babylon through Semiramis, Queen of Babylon and wife of King Nimrod, who used it to torture and kill her husband's opponents and enemies. It was adopted by The Romans for the purpose of executing prisoners. Scripture says “Cursed is the man who hangs on a cross.” Mature Christians should not have any type of religious objects in their home. It is a danger to adults, children and infants, alike. I could go on and on. Cursed objects are identified by historical use and/ or discernment by the Holy Spirit. When in doubt: destroy!

Cursed objects come in many varieties. You must yield to the Holy Spirit and ask for discernment and revelation as to whether or not the object is a cursed object. Remember, to test the spirits, when prompted by the Holy Spirit, for Scripture says “No spirit not of the Holy Spirit can say “Jesus Christ is God come in the flesh”. So if you hear a voice in your thoughts say, 'No, it's not a cursed object, you can keep it.”, do not just accept that as the voice of the Lord Jesus. Say to the voice, “Spirit, in the Name of Christ Jesus say “Jesus Christ is God come in the flesh” and say all of it, all in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it.” Wait and listen in your thoughts. If it says the entire verse, it is The Lord. If there is silence or an incomplete sentence stated, it is The Enemy, because the demonic spirit cannot say that or Satan will punish it . If you suspect that an object is a cursed object, cease handling it. Before handling and destroying, decree, declare and proclaim, “I cover myself with the Blood of Christ Jesus from the top of my head to the tips of my toes, hands and fingers, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it.” The more you discern them, the better you will become at it.

HOW TO DESTROY CURSED OBJECTS

1. If the object is burnable, you burn it. Wear goggles to protect your eyes, wear gloves to handle it and protect your hands. NEVER USE GASOLINE OR KEROSENE. If you need help igniting it, you can use a small amount of lighter fluid to start it up. Stand back and away as it burns. Do not stand in front of the fire with the wind blowing toward you. Demonic spirits will try to direct the flames toward you to try to catch your clothing on fire. Always have water on standby. Know that cursed objects often burn slowly. They resist being destroyed. Bind and command the spirit point-of-contact to go to The Pit and decree it chained there to await the Great White Throne Judgment, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it."

2. If the object is not burnable, break it. Again wear goggles and gloves. Put the object in paper or plastic bag if it is small enough. Take a hammer to it and shatter it in pieces. Discard in the garbage bin. Porcelain objects break well. Wooden objects may need to be destroyed using a hammer or sludge-hammer. Stuffed animals or dolls may need to be ripped apart with a knife. Alternatively, if you attempt to burn stuffed animals or dolls, put them first in a metal garbage can so that you can put the lid on, if the wind stirs up the fire or sparks are traveling upward into the air. You do not want to be around dry grass or shrubs.

3. If the cursed object is not burnable or breakable, you bury it. The site of burial of a cursed object should be obscure and deep, at least 2 feet deep. Say aloud, "I bind up and off all surveillance, reporting and recording and monitoring spirits and strike them deaf, dumb, blind and amnesic and decree that they cannot see or find this site or direct others to it, ever, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it." If you cannot find a suitable burial place for the object, you can always through it in the center of a canal or take it out to sea by boat to throw it into a larger body of water. If you elect to use a nearby canal, throw the object as close to the center of the canal as possible where the water is the deepest, so that the current at the bottom will carry the silt at the bottom of the canal over the object to bury it. Never throw into a canal or body of water any cursed object that might float. They must be weighted down, securely, first.

NEVER put a cursed object in a garbage can to get rid of it. Demonic spirits will jockey it to be visible, and when a passerby comes along and sees it, they will minister to its thought-life, an interest and desire to remove it and take it home, where the spirit attached to the object can begin its ministry, again, to the person who now possesses it.

NEVER give a cursed object away to another person. It will begin its ministry to them. Remember, Satan comes but to kill, steal or destroy.

DECREE RETALIATIONS FORBIDDEN: Before destroying any cursed object, say aloud, " I decree, declare and proclaim retaliations, counterattacks, judgments, wrath, revenge, or reprisals of Satan against me, my spouse, my children, grandchildren, our parents, family members or relatives, or descendants-spouses and children to 1000 generations-immediately, completely, permanently and perpetually forbidden to ever seed, manifest, actualize or realize, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it."

19. How To Do Deliverance

Definition: Deliverance is the modern-day return to the Biblical term for "exorcism", a word derived by the Roman Catholic Church. That term is unbiblical. The true term is "Deliverance", and it means to be set free from the occupation and control of demonic spirits or other evil entities, such as alien walk-in's or archons (fallen angel principalities of Ephesians 6:12).

Demonic Oppression vs. Demonic Possession:

Can a Christian have a demon? Yes. The Apostle Paul had one. He said so in 2 Cor.12 where he said that he prayed three times to The Lord to remove a physical ailment from him, "a messenger from Satan sent to buffet me.." And the Lord replied to him that "...My grace is sufficient for you." Yes, a Christian can have a harassing demonic spirit assigned to him by Satan but what it can do is restricted by the Will of God. A Christian can thus be oppressed. A Christian cannot be possessed. What is the difference? In possession,, the will of the person is taken over by the demonic spirit or other entity. Which is present is determined by the witness of the Holy Spirit through discernment (Word of Knowledge). Drug addicts, sex addicts, compulsive mass murderers, and many incoherent "street people" who wander about in confusion, talking aloud to themselves, are examples of possessions. In demonic oppression, the will of the person is not under the control of the demonic spirit or other entity, but the entity plays upon the person's weaknesses or emotions to effect behaviors that are often unacceptable. Demonic oppressions may be established through curiosity in the occult, the practice of habitual sin, generations' curses, or workings of witchcraft, sorcery or magic. All it takes for a person to take on a demonic spirit is curiosity in something sinful or occult. Once entered, a demonic spirit may stay silent within the individual for many years before even beginning its ministry. I once had a cursed object that was a famous reproduction of a drawing by the famous Middle Ages artist, Fra Angelico. It hung on my bedroom wall for 30 years with no manifestations. Then, some 30 years later, whenever I would go in my bedroom at night to lie on the bed and watch TV, I would be overcome by a tremendous feeling of heaviness and depression. When I walked out of the room, it would leave me. When I walked into the room, it would recur. After 2-3 nights, the Holy Spirit turned my head to the wall to look at the drawing. I destroyed it and everything stopped. Time and distance do not mean anything to demonic spirits. If a person is at a news stand and browsing through magazines, and happens to come across a lustful advertisement of a scantily clothed woman, and but stares at it for a few seconds, that would be adequate for a spirit of lust to enter the person. Curiosity alone, can open the door to the demonic. Demonic spirits can enter a person while watching a movie on TV or in a movie theatre. They can enter by reading a book on an occult subject such as a vampire story. If you find yourself attracted to graveyards, shortly thereafter, you will know why. Scriptures says "Be you holy, be you separate." Do not take an interest in things of darkness or the occult. One of the commonest manifestations of the presence of a demonic spirit, or a projector is what is called "the idea of a presence".

The spiritual warfare battle is between the ears, that is, in the human mind. The mind hears 3 voices: the person's own voice which is under the control of their own will. You have to will to think "I have to go to the store to get a loaf of bread." The other two voices are what deliverance ministers refer to as "drop-in's". They just drop into your thoughts. You did not pre-meditate thinking what you heard. It just came, seemingly out of nowhere. Now, you must determine who is talking to you in your thoughts. The Apostle Paul, by the Holy Spirit, said "Take every thought captive to Christ and cast down every vain imagination." The battle is first and foremost in the thought-life, and then, against our bodies, our temple of the Holy Spirit. If we therefore hear a voice enter our thoughts, we must determine if it is God or Satan. The voice of God is what Isaiah called "the still small voice". It sounds somewhat distance, is gentle, and never says anything contrary to the Word of God, only those things that are in line with the Word of God. The voice of Satan can be charming to hear, or rough or abrasive, and it will either say or suggest something contrary to the Word of God, or twist the Word of God. The Holy Spirit's voice gently leads. Satan's voice almost always urges. Satan wants you to make a move without thinking what you are doing, and then think about it after you made your mistake. That is the nature of deception.

A demonic spirit or fallen angel (archon) are usually invisible. Do not fear them. Fear attracts the demonic the way faith attracts the Holy Spirit. Remember, they are all defeated by The Lord Jesus Christ by the work of the Cross. They have no power against the believer. Everything that they do, they do by bluffing. Christ took their power from them at the Cross, so the only way that they carry out their ministry today is by lies and deception. Do not be intimidated by them. Cover yourself with the Blood of Christ Jesus by saying " Father, in Christ Jesus' Name, I cover myself with the Blood of Christ Jesus from the top of my head to the tips of my toes, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it."

STRATEGY #1: Acknowledge the Lord. Empty yourself vessel for His use. Submit to God (Ja.4:7), prepare by Self-examination, confession and repentance. "Who can stand on the Hill of The Lord except he who has a pure heart and clean hands." Yield to the Holy Spirit in Christ Jesus' Name. You are now ready to engage The Enemy without fear. Remember, Scripture says that you are the Head and not the tail. You have ALL power over the Enemy (Lk.10:19 and they MUST OBEY your EVERY COMMAND in the Name of Christ Jesus. (Lk.10:17). Although the demonic spirit has a spirit-body, they occupy the mind and thought-life of the person receiving ministry. For practical purposes, regard and treat them as "thought-forms" in the mind (soul-life) of the person receiving ministry. So you can say to that person, " Now I am going to talk to your thoughts, not you. So do not fear, and if you feel something manifesting in you, do not try to stop it or fight it under your own power. Just let whatever wants to manifest, manifest. We have authority over it, and we will cast it out. No harm will come to you, in Christ Jesus' Name." Now, proceed to speak to the person's thoughts and proclaim the following aloud.

Strategy #1: Read several times slowly to understand; take notes)

Start out with binding Satan and his hierarchy of spirits. Say aloud the following commands and just read them off, whenever you want to do a deliverance, until such time that you have become accustomed to them and can speak them out by memory, or let the Holy Spirit develop your own style of delivery as you go along. The important thing is that you cover each point exactly, not how you say them. Being specific in your words is more paralyzing to The Enemy. Tell them what they MUST do, Tell them what they CAN'T DO, such as retaliation, counterattack, etc.-all in Christ Jesus' Name. Then begin with: :

" Father, I bind Satan, all principalities powers, rulers of the darkness, wicked spirits in high places (Eph.6:12), all territorial spirits, elemental spirits, familiar spirits on assignment, the Strongman spirit, and all above, around and below the Strongman spirits, all in Christ Jesus' Name.

" Spirit of (name),* I bind you and I engage you in the Name of Christ Jesus. I break your powers, communication lines, supply lines, and bind up and off all reinforcements, all in Christ Jesus' Name. I bind Satan and the Strongman spirit of (name) on assignment first, in the Name of Christ Jesus. I bind you up and off from Satan, the Strongman (Ruler) spirit, and all above, around and below them, all in Christ Jesus' Name. I take you captive to Christ in Christ Jesus' Name. I bind you up and off from:

- violence
- accusations
- retaliations

all in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus. I invite, command, decree, declare and proclaim that warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus come forth to my presence right now, to stand guard, and to apprehend, arrest, and restrain you and cast down to The Pit any and all interfering spirits or reinforcements, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

Then, if you are ministering to another person, say, " I loose (name) from you, now, and cast you out and down to The Pit and chain you there until the Great White Throne Judgment, all in Christ Jesus' Name. Come out of him/her now, I command it in Christ Jesus' Name." (Repeat and repeat). If you meet with resistance, use one or more of the following tactics:" I command that you leave now in Christ Jesus' Name." or say,

" Look at me! Look into my eyes, keep looking at me and obey! I break your will in Christ Jesus' Name, I break your resistance in Christ Jesus' Name." Come out now and go to the Pit in Christ Jesus' Name." Fear not. Repeat and repeat commands. These tactics weaken them. You will see the spirit try to turn the person's head away from you. When they look into your eyes, the Holy Spirit shows them the face of Christ who is in you, and it creates fear and suffering in them and makes them weaker. They have trouble resisting. Keep commanding them out until your break their will. You can also read them the Word of God, particularly selected verses appropriate for the person's circumstances. They find it painful to hear the Word of God.

* the name of a demonic spirit is its ministry. Determine, discern, ask the Holy Spirit, what is the Strongman spirit ruling this person. It is usually found to be determined by what the most oppressive and controlling behavior dominates the person. If the person cannot stop lusting, then it is the spirit of lust. If the person cannot stop fornicating, then it is the spirit of fornication. The most obsessing behavior is usually the Strongman. The person will usually be found to have a number of spirits on board. They reinforce each other and usually work in three's. Scripture says "The three-fold cord is not easily broken. " Thus, the spirits of lust, perversion and fornication can be a three-fold cord. When you cast out one, you must ask the Holy Spirit what the other two are.

Another 3-fold cord is Jezebel-Control-Faultfinder. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you what the 3-fold cords in the person are.

A group of spirits inhabiting a person is referred to as a "Stronghold". It is called a Stronghold because it has a STRONG-HOLD on the person. Therefore, the person must be "loosed" from it. The word "bind" means to tie up, immobilize, or paralyze. The word "loose" means to untie and set free. You bind Satan and the spirits under him, and you loose the person, place or thing. (Mt.16:19) It is important to first bind the Strongman before going after the spirits under the Strongman. They take their orders from the strongman. Often, if you go after the Strongman first and break his power, communication lines, supply lines, reinforcements, the whole Stronghold under him will go with him because they have no one to take orders from. Mt. 12:29 says "How can you pillage a Strongman's house unless you first bind the Strongman?" Then loose the person from him .Then bind all those under the strongman, all in the Name of Christ Jesus.

Note: When you bind or loose, keep in mind that you MUST do so ALWAYS "in the Name of Christ Jesus." You have no authority to do otherwise. If you say nothing, the demonic spirit will presume that you are doing what you are doing in your own name, and retaliate. Your name or my name will not do. You or I did not pay for our sins or the sins of others on the Cross, and therefore we did not defeat Satan and his minions. Jesus did. Only Jesus' Name will work. Here is a pearl to stand by: IF you start out every command with "In the Name of Christ Jesus, I bind…….", then you will never forget to only use the Name of Christ Jesus, and you will never see retaliation..

If there are others in the room attending the deliverance for learning purposes or intercession, cover them, also, with the Blood of Christ Jesus "in the Name of Christ Jesus" and they will be perfectly safe, also. DO NOT cover the person receiving deliverance with the Blood of Christ Jesus. Demonic spirits cannot pass The Blood. They will resist coming out all the more and the deliverance will take longer.

The deliverance manifestations can include: yawning, coughing, repeated blowing of the breath out of the mouth, wretching or vomiting (always have a wastebasket with a liner nearby), sneezing repeatedly, among other manifestations. When the end of the deliverance approaches and the spirits are feeling very weakened and know that they cannot resist much longer, they often begin to cry through the person. Why? Because there are superior spirits in the background that you cannot see, who are waiting to arrest them and take them to Satan to be punished for loosing their position in the person. Keep persisting!

Here are some other principles to keep in mind":
1. Never start a deliverance (UNLESS it is an emergency) in the early or late evening hours. Satan will force the spirits to resist coming out all the more to tire you into the late evening hours, to make you give up or quit. Always start in the mornings or early afternoons. It may take several hours , or it may take 20 minutes, depending on what is onboard in the individual receiving deliverance.
2. The deliverance does not have to be done all at one time. YOU are in control, not the demons. It is often wise to work in 2 hour sessions, so that the person receiving ministry does not become exhausted, something that the demonic spirits want to see:

Pray aloud: "Father, I bind, box, gag and cage all spirits not of the Holy Spirit on assignment to or through (name).I bind them all up and off from each other. I break their powers, communication lines, supply lines, all reinforcements, and enabling, and decree, declare and proclaim them isolated from each other and paralyzed and all reinforcements bound up and off, all in Christ Jesus' Name, so be these things." (Each time that you are ready to resume deliverance, do not forget that you must lift off the boxing, caging, and gagging and take them captive to Christ, binding them first in Christ Jesus' Name. Then continue commands to come out.)

Watch out for their delay tactics: wandering eyes, drowsiness, sleep, crying, pleading not to come out, threatening, dropping to the floor and feign to be unconscious complaining of feeling ill (these are usually the spirits speaking through the person), fainting, or laughing (mocking spirit) -all of these are delay tactics. Bind and gag them in Christ Jesus' Name. Then cast them out to the Pit in Christ Jesus' Name. You only have to give the command once. They must obey (Lk.10:17) Sit the person up in the chair and resume commands to come out and bind them from theatrics and delay tactics in the Name of Christ Jesus. Remember, you are always in command, not them. If the person is still drowsy, do not leave them in the chair unattended, as the spirits will try to make them fall over limp to the floor and injure them to stop the deliverance. If you have previously prohibited violence, you will not see violence. If you forgot, and the spirits try to lunge forward as if to threaten, bind and command the warrior angels to restrain them and arrest them in Christ Jesus' Name."

STRATEGY #2 : Deliverance by Co-operation with the Holy Spirit. He is the first mouth of the double-mouthed sword of the Spirit. You are the second mouth, and will speak what He speaks to you in your thoughts or through the impressions that He puts on your heart. There will be a fruit of the Spirit present, usually Peace, and a gift of the Spirit present, usually Word of Knowledge (discernment) and/or Word of Wisdom.

Another form of deliverance that is also very effective is as follows:

1. Use the same preparations as in Strategy #1
2. Do the usual bindings. Bind the Satanic Hierarchy as in Strategy #1 and loos the person "in the Name of Christ Jesus."
3. Next, invite The Presence of The Holy Spirit to do the deliverance, and trust that once you ask Him to be present. Remember, Scripture says "be it done to you according to your faith." Faith is trust on Christ.
4. Now, ask the Holy Spirit, aloud, what the name of the first demonic spirit is that He wants to cast out, and listen in your thoughts for His response. Then, address and engage that spirit as you would in Strategy #1, bind it, loose the person, and then command: I bind you to the Strongman and I dispatch you both to his/her lungs quietly without harming, to be cast out on exhalation, and to go to The Pit and be chained there until the Great White Throne Judgment, and you all obey, I command and demand it in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus, in Christ Jesus' Name."
5. Now instruct the person who is receiving deliverance to take a deep breath in, and to hold it until you say "Blow out hard in Christ Jesus' Name." , and then to blow out with a sustained forceful blowing until the lungs are completely empty.
6. Now, quickly address the Holy Spirit as follows: "Holy Spirit, I reverently ask you to infill (name of person) and engage the spirit(s) of (name them) and drive them out to The Pit, please, I reverently ask it in Christ Jesus' Name". Then tell the person "Blow out hard NOW, in Christ Jesus' Name.". Then say, "Breathe normally."
7. Now repeat the procedure a second time, saying to the person, "Take a deep breath in again, and hold it. Holy Spirit please infill (name) again, and engage the unholy remnant, and cast them out to The Pit, I reverently ask you in Christ Jesus' Name." Then say, again, to the person receiving deliverance, " Blow out hard NOW in Christ Jesus' Name". After forceful exhalation, say "Breathe normally".
8. Now, have them take a deep breath in again, a third time, and to forceful hold it in until you tell them to blow, again. Address the Holy Spirit, " Holy Spirit, please infill (name) again and have your way with him/her, I reverently ask it of you in the Name of Christ Jesus and give you thanks, praise and Glory in Christ Jesus' Name" Then, say to the person, again, "Blow HARD"! When they reach the end of their breath, say "Breathe normally." Discern if more deliverance is needed by the witness of The Holy Spirit. The deliverance is over when you perceive in your spirit a "release" from The Holy Spirit, a witness that the deliverance is over, at least for this day's session. Give glory, thanksgiving and praise to Father God, the Lord Christ Jesus, and The Holy Spirit, all in Christ Jesus' Name

How to tell if the person has truly received deliverance:

1. Their facial countenance changes and you will perceive their peace, in your spirit.
2. The person perceives change in their spirit, that something has lifted off of them and that their oppression is gone.

3. Often, they will volunteer that they feel light.
4. They will often want to go into spontaneous thanksgiving and praise to The Lord.
5. They will express that a major change has occurred within them, and that they know they are free.
6. If there were intercessors in the room during the deliverance, a confirmation of two or three witnesses will be present.

STRATEGY #3: Simple Deliverance Prayer:

On occasion you may be led by the Holy Spirit to first do deliverance through a simple deliverance prayer, after leading the person to repent of the sin that opened the door to Satan. You can pray over them , "Father, in Christ Jesus' Name, I bind Satan. All principalities, powers, rulers, wicked spirits in high places, territorials, elementals, familiars, and the Strongman on assignment. I bind the spirit(s) of (name according to the sin or sins committed), I loose (person's name), and I cast them out now to The Pit and chain them there to await the Great White Throne Judgment, all in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus. I decree all these things now by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.(Job 22:28; Prov.18:21) So be it."

STRATEGY # 4: Deliverance through Water Baptism by Immersion:

Yes, you heard me right. Water baptism by immersion. Few Christians know this, but water baptism by immersion was the first order of deliverance in the early church. That is how they did deliverance! And you can also! Let's look at the basis for this in the Scripture:

Romans 6:3-4 ⌄ King James Version ⌄

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

There are two important points to know from this scripture that the early Christians knew. They are both in verse 4. Notice first, that it says that we are buried with Him when we go down under the water. So if we confess and repent of our sins, acknowledge them to The Lord, we can then surrender them to Him to put in the death work of the Cross, bind Satan and the spirits of (by name of the sin) and command them to be cast out now, on immersion into Christ's death with Him. What the Scripture is telling us is that when we go down under the water, it says we are buried with Him. Christ is waiting under the water for an encounter with us. He is also waiting for an encounter with what is on us-the demonic spirits. When we go down under the water, they have an encounter with Jesus, and He drives them to The Pit. Yes, it really happens. Then, notice that the scripture of verse 4 says that we walk in newness of life (DELIVERANCE)!

The beautiful thing about Water Baptism is that it can be done as many times as necessary. In the Book of Acts, Paul mentioned that he baptized people again because of their lack of understanding. Well, if you can baptize people again for that, you can baptize them again for deliverance, whenever needed. Just be sure to do the preparations as in Strategy #1 ahead of time, then the binding and loosing prayer, and command the casting out to the Pit before going down under the water-Jesus will do the rest, as usual!

STRATEGY #5: Deliverance with Anointing Oil (James 5:13-15) for "the afflicted" or "the sick":

Anointing Oil, that is, oil that has been sanctified and consecrated by prayer with the spoken impartations over it of cleansing from defilements, and for healing, deliverance, restoration. Anyone can make anointing oil.

Many Christians think that only a pastor or priest can consecrate anointing oil. No, that is not correct. If you are a born-again, Spirit-filled Christian, you quality. Use olive oil. I have heard of people using vegetable oil, but it is medically harmful to the body, so why would I want to use an oil that has some sort of negative anointing on it to harm the body. Traditionally, olive oil has been used since the first century. Mineral oil cannot be used because it is not vegetative in origin. Consecration of oil is based upon Job 22:28 that says, "You will decree a thing and it will be established for you."

Here is a prayer to consecrate Anointing Oil:

Say aloud: " Father, I decree, declare and proclaim this oil as the Oil of Anointing, empowered by Your Holy Spirit now with the anointing of healing, deliverance, restoration, cleansing from defilements, and sanctification of all that it is applied to, by the faith of God and to Your Glory, in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it."

Now, the anointing oil can be applied to a person, including yourself, for deliverance. Have them confess and repent of any sins, through private self-examination, confession and repentance. Bind Satan and the hierarchy, then the Strongman, then whatever spirit(s) are harassing, loose the person, command the spirits out to the Pit in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus, to be chained there until the Great White Throne Judgment. Then apply the Anointing Oil to the top of their head and forehead, and decree deliverance in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus. Do morning and at night before bedtime, and repeat daily, until the person reports a change and witness that the spirit is gone. With each application, say "This is the Blood of Christ Jesus in the Name of Christ Jesus, so be it." (Job 22:28)

Here is another strategy variation for deliverance for children, teens, or young adults who are misbehaving or gone astray and away from The Lord. Before doing this, remove cursed objects from the room and destroy.

1. When they are away, anoint the inside of their bedroom with a small amount of oil from the fingertip, saying each time "Holy ground and Kingdom territory in Christ Jesus' Name." Then anoint the following, saying the same, with each application:

- the 4 walls of their bedroom and insides of their closet
- the middle of the floor
- strip their beds and pillows: anoint the 4 corners of the mattress and its center, and the 4 corners and center of the pillow on each side. Then make the bed again and restore the pillow case.
- anoint the underside of any chair that they sit on when they study or use the computer or video games.
- anoint the inside of their shoes lightly with the oil.
- repeat the procedure weekly until you see changes for the better. The whole idea is that wherever they work, study, stand or sleep, they are always on Holy Ground and in Kingdom territory, 24 hours per day.

Do not forget to decree, "Holy ground and Kingdom territory:" with each application of the finger. Watch God work.

This procedure is also an excellent way to do deliverance in young children who pick up spirits through demonic toys or children's TV programs or demonic games. Look for behavioral changes with tendencies toward disobedience, belligerence, or contentious behaviors reflecting personality change or disturbance that the child cannot account for. If seen, most of the time this represents a spirit trying to live its life through the child. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you a confirmatory witness, and if he does, use the anointing oil procedure above for deliverance without the child knowing.

STRATEGY #6: Deliverance through use of The Prayer Cloth (Acts 19:11,12)

In Acts 19:11-12, we read that Paul wore handkerchiefs and aprons against his body, and he sent them to the sick and they were healed of their diseases and the evil spirits left them.

How did Paul know to do this? He had heard of the woman who was ill, who , by faith, touched the hem of Jesus' garment, thinking that if she but touch his garment that she would be healed. Jesus felt that power left Him, and turned around and asked "Who touched me?" When she admitted that she had touched the hem of his garment to be healed, He said to her, that she was healed according to her faith. Now here is an interesting observation. The power of the anointing left Jesus body. He perceived it. It was not directly transferred to her because she was following Him. She had to touch his garment first. That meant that the cloth, the garment, had a property that permitted it to hold the anointing in its fibers. Paul realized this and began to wear cloths against his body, and he observed the same results. Why? The answer is that Jesus commanded it in John 14:12 when He said, "The things that I do you will do, and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to The Father."

How to Make Prayer Cloths:

You can make a single prayer cloth by wearing a square of cloth, or handkerchief, or more than one against your body for several hours, and then distributing them to whomever you are led to give it to. Because I am a pastor and have need to give out fairly large numbers of these at a time (they do not loose their anointing once "charged"), here is what I do: I go to a fabric shop and buy 1-23 yards of red felt (I love the color red because it reminds the demons of the Blood of Christ Jesus). I cut the felt into 4inch by 6 inch pieces, or up to 8inch by 8 inch pieces. I thread a needle with a long thread and string 50-100 squares of cloth along the thread and then tie the ends. At praise and worship on Sunday mornings, I throw the loop of prayer cloths over my right shoulder and wear them against my body throughout the praise and worship service, and even preach with them over my shoulder until the end of the service. I then cut the thread and give them away. Here are the instructions that I give to the people:

1. If you are seeking deliverance, wear the prayer cloth against the skin of your body under your clothes throughout the day, and even sleep with it against you throughout the night. Keep doing so until you feel the release of the Holy Spirit that you do not need to do so, anymore. It may take only a day, perhaps a week perhaps months. Your faith empowers the reception of the anointing from the cloth. When your healing or deliverance comes, give a testimony to others and give the Lord glory!
2. If the problem is psychological or emotional, such as depression or mental illness, put the prayer cloth inside your pillow cover when you sleep at night, and rest your head upon the prayer cloth as you sleep. Claim your deliverance nightly "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name" before you go to bed. Continue until you perceive the release of the Holy Spirit and you perceive that deliverance has occurred and the oppression is gone. Give God the Glory, thanks and praise.

STRATEGY #7: Deliverance by Destroying Demonic Altars

This procedure is of very special value, particularly when there are legal grounds for demonic spirits to stand in a family line because of generations' curses. Generations' curses are birthed upon demonic altars. Satan copies everything that God does. If you study both Old and New Testament scriptures, you will discover that God loves altars….Godly ones, that is. But Satan is a counterfeiter and tries to counterfeit everything that God does. If you study altars in the Old Testament, you will find that many of the patriarchs and prophets, kings and priests built altars to God. Altars were the place where spiritual transactions took place, where covenants were made, where worship was performed, where intercessions were obtained, and where they fellowshipped with God. Abraham built 5 altars to God. At his 2nd altar, God required of him that he sacrifice his son, Isaac to Him, on the altar. God told Abraham to bind his son to the altar and sacrifice him. When Abraham lifted the knife to sacrifice Isaac, God told him to stop, that He did not require it of him to take the boy's life, now knowing that he, that is, Abraham, trusted God. He told Abraham to cut him loose from the altar. Then God provided a substitute for the sacrifice, a ram from the surrounding brush. Then God told Abraham that He would make a covenant with Abraham, that He would make him the father of many nations and his offspring as the sands of the seas and the stars of the heavens. It also says in the Old Testament that when covenants were made at the altars, that the Spirit of God sealed the covenants at the altars. The Holy Spirit became the Seal spirit of the Covenant, that is, the Enforcer of the Covenant. Godly Altars were the meeting places between God and man. But, Satan counterfeits what God does, only for his purposes. The desire for holiness attracted the patriarchs and prophets to Godly altars and their entering covenant with God provided the Godly foundation for meeting Him at an altar.

Satan uses altars also. He is a copycat. Here is how he does it. Firstly, it is necessary to understand that whereas the patriarchs, prophets, priests and kings were attracted to the Godly altar by the holiness of God, their holy foundation being their willingness to obey God, the opposite is true with demonic altars. Satan establishes demonic altars through sin. Here is now he does it.

> When a person is seduced by Satan to try sin, if he repents with a Godly repentance, that person has an Advocate with the Father, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Scripture says. (1 John 2:1) But the practice of sin brings a bad consequence. IN Hebrews 10:26-27 we read: "If we deliberately continue sinning, after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sin is left but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fires that will consume the enemies of God." This latter verse is talking about the practice of sin. The practice of sin is called iniquity. If Satan seduces someone to practice sin, that practice of iniquity establishes and evil foundation. The person, through practice, begins to like and accept that practice of sin. He or she knows by the witness of the Holy Spirit that it is sin. But the flesh being weak, they make a decision in their heart to keep doing the sin even though they know it is not the will of God for them to do it. They are now exalting their own will over the will of God. Paul called that "will worship" in the New Testament scripture. It is the sin of idolatry of self. Idolatry is one of the gravest sins of the Bible. Once the sin becomes habitual, Satan now establishes a covenant with the iniquitous individual. For example, if the individual is a fornicator and does not want to give up his practice of fornication- that establishes an evil foundation for Satan to act. Just as Christ establishes a *one-sided covenan*t with us, called t*he covenant in His Blood*, Satan then establishes a one-sided covenant with the sinner, however. without the sinner knowing, Satan then tells the spirit of fornication to become the seal spirit and seal the covenant and build an altar of fornication and bind the sinner to it, and his next 3 generations to follow, and chain them to the demonic altar. From that moment on, the spirit of fornication becomes the seal spirit of the demonic altar and a generations' curse of fornication is birthed that will bind the person and his successive 3 generations to the altar. That generations' curse will birth 4 generations of fornicators. To get free, there must be repentance of all ancestral iniquities back to and including Adam and Eve, on all sides of the person's mother's and father's two families, also back to Adam and Eve, with repentance from the heart. They must then break the evil foundation of fornication, the covenant and seal of fornication, the demonic altar of fornication, cut the chains and fetters and loose and divorce themselves from the demonic altar, call down the fire of God upon it to destroy it and break the generations' curse of fornication. Then, and only then, are they delivered and set free.
> This is a process available to anyone who is serious about getting free of generational sins. If you would like to know about how to obtain deliverance through breaking altars, and about the different kinds of demonic altars, I invite you to go to our website at www.walkinginpower.org. It will open up to the Homepage. Scroll up to the top Toolbar and click on the word "Books". It will take you to our Book Section where you can get a FREE download of my book "My Chains Are Gone". You need only to follow "cookbook" directions of what to do by studying Chapters 2,3,and 4; then, pray the prayers, word for word as outlined, God will break generational curses off of you, your spouse and children (providing that they do not repeat the sinful practice of the ancestors), and will set you gloriously free. We have had reports of multiple demons leaving without one of them being cast out one by one in the Name of Christ Jesus. Why? The answer is that the Seal spirit of the demonic altar is an archon, a principality, a fallen angel. The demons are underlings who take their order from the seal spirit. When the seal spirit is cast out to the Pit, the underlings have no one to give them directions and they scatter. Praise God. The Lord Christ Jesus shows us marvelous ways to get mass deliverance, also. It is all of Jesus. Every command in the Name of Christ Jesus. Always remember, Jesus is The Deliverer.

8, STRATEGY #8: Deliverance of Infants and Small Children

In this day and age, where non-discerning parents do not realize that many of the toys and books, devices and gadgets that they purchase for their little children are demonic, we now have a rash of behavioral problems and disorders seen in infants and little children. Parents may find their little infants crying repeatedly during the night in their bedrooms or nurseries. They may go into the room and find their children standing up in the crib, holding on to the rail, and crying in terror for no apparent reason. Thinking that it might have been a bad dream, they often try to comfort the child only to find that the same thing recurs several nights per week with no apparent explanation. Considerations are:

1. If the house was purchased from previous owner or owners, spirits may have been left behind as psychic residues, and may be haunting the room or the child.
2. The child may be being ministered to by a spirit point-of-contact with a demonic toy in the child's room.
3. There may be a disembodied soul of an unsaved dead person who had lived in the house during life, who is walking the house during the night. Yes, it happens.
4. It may be a projector from outside of the home such as a witch or warlock, who has been offended or opposed by a family member or parent, and who is projecting to do 'revenge witchcraft" against the family.

Take these steps:

1. Pray for the leading of the Holy Spirit and discernment. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you the root of the problem. In Mt.3:10, Jesus said "Put the axe (you, the anointed) to the root.
2. Begin by removing toys from the room, one by one, each night. If the child stops crying and sleeps through, check the last toy that was removed that caused the activity to stop. That toy is a cursed object. Replace with an educational toy. Never take a demonic toy from a child without immediately replacing it with a good toy, purchased by discernment of the Holy Spirit. If you do otherwise, Satan or a spirit will minister to the child's thoughts that you are being mean to t them and don't like them, to make the child resentful toward the parents, and induce rebellious behavior. Watch the child for several nights, and if nothing recurs, nothing further needs to be done.
3. If the fear and crying recurs, and all toys and objects have been removed from the room, then do deliverance of the child as follows:
   a. Put the child to bed and wait for the child to sleep. It is likely that the child will fall asleep quicker if the child knows that you are there, staying with him/her.
   b. When the child is finally asleep, move to the open doorway of the room, stand outside and extend your right hand and arm out (Isa.23:11) to the child's head and begin to pray in tongues quietly under your breath but loud enough to release the words into the room, and continue to pray for up to ½ to 1 hour as the Spirit leads. Repeat nightly until the demonic harassment stops. Keep the child under observation thereafter. Repeat the procedure nightly, then, as needed until the phenomena stops permanently If you do not pray in tongues, use the power of praise. Praising the Lord repeatedly does the same things as tongues, as is just as effective for those who do not speak in tongues.
4. The procedure is the same for small toddlers or young children. There is no need to scare them by speaking of demons in front of them. Often, as you are standing in the doorway and praying deliverance with your arm extended, as the spirit or spirits leave, you may see a sudden single, mass jerking of both arms and both legs, all at the same time. This is a sign that the spirit has departed.

5. Continue for one or two nights more to be certain that there were not other spirits left behind. Then observe the sleep pattern of the child over the next several days and up to two more weeks to be certain that the child has been set completely free. Give God the thanks, praise and glory.

6. If there are noises in the house at night such as "foot-steps" or "ball and chain" sounds dragging on the floor, or voices, moans or groans, then challenge the spirit and bind Satan and bind command it to stop in the Name of Christ Jesus. Loose the house, the children and all others including your spouse and you from the entity, and cast it out to The Pit and chain it there until the Great White Throne Judgment, and command it to never return in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus. Claim the house and grounds as Holy Ground and Kingdom territory and dedicated to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; dedicated as Kingdom property in Christ Jesus Name, and off limits to The Enemy or any of its cohorts, "all in Christ Jesus' Name."

9. STRATEGY #9: Deliverance of a House

There is such a thing as a haunted house. Perhaps you bought one when you purchased a home that had one or more previous owners. Sometimes, such homes are over 100 years old. A home does not have to be old in order to be haunted.

For instance, a new home may be purchased by a person or persons who are into witchcraft, sorcery or magic, and who have practiced occult works during their stay in the house. Perhaps they moved away, and when they did, they left the psychic residues (the spirits) behind. You purchased the house and got more than you bargained for: such as people walking and talking in other rooms at night, writing on mirrors, footsteps in the hallway or going up or down a stairway, doors opening or closing by themselves. It is time that they go and you stay, and that you stay in peace! The house must be cleansed and this is how to perform the deliverance or exorcism-both the house and the grounds must be cleansed:

1. Put The Enemy on notice that this house is no longer theirs but yours in Christ Jesus' Name.
2. Go through each room of the house and decree aloud: "I decree this house and room cleansed of all of its histories and defilements in the Name and by The Blood of Christ Jesus, and claim it back now as Kingdom Territory and Holy Ground in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus, consecrated to the Lord Christ Jesus to His Glory, One with The Father and Holy Spirit, all in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it." Repeat the same in each room, and as you proclaim each room, anoint the 4 walls, and middle of each floor, and the inside 4 walls and inside door of each closet. Claim the attic and the cellar in the same way.
3. Then go outdoors and walk the perimeter of the lot, sprinkling Anointing Oil on the ground as you go around, decreeing "Holy Ground and Kingdom Territory, returned to The Lord High God of Israel in The Name of Christ Jesus", repeating as you circle the perimeter of the grounds until the claim is executed. Then go to the center of the lawn and pick up a handful of dirt and claim aloud as the Old Testament Prophets did when Israel had been invaded by their enemies and their land defiled: say aloud "Return O Land and Home to the Kingdom of The Lord Your God, in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus." Then throw the dirt upward in the air toward Heaven. The house and the land are now cleansed of all defilements and returned to you as Kingdom property. If phenomena persist, do as house search for cursed objects and destroy. When you sprinkle anointing oil along the perimeter of the grounds, the flow of the oil does not need to be steady and continuous in one line. It needs only to be scattered intermittently along the line and the property claimed back in Christ Jesus' Name.

10. STRATEGY #10: The Jericho March

This deliverance procedure is used to destroy strongholds that resist the things of God. It is particularly useful in breaking strongholds such as old or new homes that resist cleansing, destroying strongholds of The Enemy such as adult bookstores, bars, adult movie houses, brothels, freemasonry temples, etc.. It is based on the pattern of the Jericho March of Joshua 6. Today, because we do not have the required 7 priests with ram's horns (trumpets) we need to improvise. We do this as follows:

1. We decree, declare, invite, command and proclaim in the Name of Christ Jesus that seven ministering angels of the Lord Christ Jesus come to our presence each day and march ahead of us as the 7 trumpeters of The Lord; we then believe by faith that they are ahead of us each day. We then provide 7 born-again Spirit-filled believers who are Melchizedek priests to our God, according to Revelations 1:6, to lead the procession of believers who want to participate. Declare the purpose of the Jericho March before starting it, and dedicate it to the Glory of The Father in Christ Jesus' Name. God honors the intent of the heart.
2. The procession walks around the target once per day, silently without speaking or praying aloud, trusting that the angel-trumpeters are ahead. They march around the target once daily for 6 days. No talking. The procession should end where it started.
3. On the 7th day, the procession goes around the target 7 times, and upon completion of the 7th time, everyone gives a great shout of victory unto the Most High God of Israel, "Praise The Lord!" repeatedly. The Jericho March is completed. Now watch for God's action(s) to manifest.

STRATEGY #11: Dispatching Angelic Ambushments (2Chron.20:1-27) Deliverance For Desperate Circumstances

Please read the narrative of 2 Chronicles 20:1-27. This is a circumstance in which King Jehoshaphat of Judah was out in the wilderness, and found that the Kings of Ammon, Moab and Mt. Seir had formed an alliance against him and had planned to attack and pillage Judah. King Jehoshaphat was greatly outnumbered and without men or defenses to fight. This, then, becomes a strategy to call upon The Lord High God of Israel when you are outnumbered by the spiritual attacks of The Enemy and there seems no way out for you. Perhaps your pastor does not know spiritual warfare. Perhaps there are not enough spiritual warriors in your church to resist The Enemy with you. Perhaps they know no weapons to fight with or are ill equipped. Perhaps you are surrounded by people who say that they are your neighbors (as did those of Ammon, Moab and those of Mt. Seir) but, in actuality, they are ready to come against you. Perhaps, like these pagan armies that surrounded King Jehoshaphat, and didn't like his spirituality or belief system, and now those around you don't like your spirituality or belief system, yes, just perhaps you find yourself in the same boat as King Jehoshaphat. Not to worry. Jesus to the rescue.

The way out- 2 Chronicles 20:

1. verse 5: Go before the "New Court", the Court of Heaven.
2. verse 6: Acknowledge The Lord
3. verse 7-8: Acknowledge His Power and Authority over all.
4. verse 9: Present the problem to The Lord; acknowledge to Him that evil has come upon your circumstance. Cry out to Him for help. Confess your trust that He will hear and deliver.
5. verses 10-11: Describe the problem in more detail .
6. verse 12: Ask God to judge them for their evil. Admit you are helpless to solve this problem and don't know what to do. Tell God "Our eyes are on You."
7. verse 13: Assemble your people and their families before the Lord.
8. verse 14: Be led to choose a Spirit-filled prophet to speak.
9. verse15-16: Seek God's instruction letting the prophet be the mouthpiece of God.
10. verse 17: Hear and Obey.
11. verse 18:Worship The Father.
12. verse 19: The priesthood of the believers then rise in Praise of The Lord High God of Israel and Judah.
13. verse 20: Assemble at the appointed time, instruct all to trust God and His prophets to succeed, go into Thanksgiving, Praise and Glory to God, putting on the full armor of God:
14. verse21: All confess aloud, "Give thanks to the Lord for His loving kindness is everlasting!"
15. verse 22: Watch God work and release ambushes against The Enemy.

This is an ideal spiritual tactic and strategy both for individuals and churches who are in great difficulty. On the human level, it sounds ridiculous to do something like this, but when you are ready to do the ridiculous, God is ready to do the miraculous. These steps need not be performed all at one time, but may be done over several days. “Where there is The Spirit, there is liberty.” (2 Cor.3:17). It appears that King Jehoshaphat pursued this over a period of two, or perhaps three days.

New Testament people are given the Grace to dispatch angels for a Godly purpose as led by the Holy Spirit through the witness of the Spirit. This is done according to Rev.1:16 that tells us that out of Christ's mouth comes the two-edged sword. The word in the original New Testament Greek, however, is not "two-edged". The literal Greek says "double-mouthed". Christ speaks to our spirit-man as the first mouth, His spirit witnesses to our spirit (Rom.8:16) and we speak what He speaks to us or impresses upon us to speak, and the 2nd mouth of the double-mouthed sword. We are given authority to do so in Hebrews 1:14-and, again, we see the Old Testament counterpart, or."type" expressed in Ps.103:20-

K IV

103:20	בָּרֲכוּ	יְהוָה	מַלְאָכָיו	גִּבֹּרֵי	כֹחַ	עֹשֵׂי	דְבָרוֹ

20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Notice in this verse of the literal Hebrew above, that it says that the messengers, His angels, listen to "the voice of the Word of him". The King James version, to the right uses the word "harkening", which is Old English for "listening to, responding to". Notice, in the literal Hebrew, how the last phrase is expressed. It does not say, "listening to His Word. It already says in the first part of the verse that His angels are the "ones doing of the Word of Him" , that is "the ones doing His Word". If, they are already doing His Word, then, listening to the voice of His Word, if it referred to The Lord, would be redundant. I believe that the use of the term "voice of", implies the 2nd mouth of the double-mouthed sword, and the expression, "ones doing His Word", earlier on in this verse, refers to The Lord, the 1st mouth of the double-mouthed sword. It is actually confirmed, in practice. You can command angels, as led by the Holy Spirit, to do anything that is scriptural.

STRATEGY # 12: The Outstretched Hand of The Lord (Isa.23:11; Gen.48:17-19; Mt.25:33,41)

To understand the use of the “Hand of the Lord”, we must turn to the examples of Scripture. A survey of Scripture will readily demonstrate that in Hebrew tradition and representation in the Word, the right hand was used for blessing (Gen.48:17-19) and the left hand was used for judgment or punishment (Mt.25:33,41). The outstretched arm of God represented His power and capacity to save and deliver. The "hand of the Lord", used frequently in Old Testament scripture, was synonymous with "the Anointing", the empowerment of Holy Spirit of God. We frequently read "the Hand of the Lord was upon them....", in Old Testament scripture. Thus, the outstretched right arm and hand of the Lord would be representative of the Lord's salvation and deliverance unto blessing. The outstretched left arm and hand of The Lord would be representative of His power and authority to bring judgment and punishment. In Isaiah 23:11 we read: " He has stretched His Hand out over the sea. He has made the kingdoms tremble. The Lord has given a command concerning Canaan to demolish its strongholds and fortresses." In all likelihood, The Lord outstretched His left arm and hand. Canaan, in this verse, was the land where the Canaanites dwelt and worshiped their Canaanite gods, and practiced idolatry and infant sacrifice as Baal worship. In typology of Scripture, Canaan represented a type of Satan's kingdom, and the "strongholds" represent a demonic stronghold. It is called a "stronghold" because it has a "strong" hold on the person. Thus, the outstretched left arm and hand, directed at a person, is a command of God for destruction and judgment of Satan's stronghold on a person. Please refer back to STRATEGY 8. There you will see that this technique of deliverance is used for deliverance of infants and children while they sleep. It is very effective through persistence, with commands for destruction and casting out being given "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name." It can be used for adult strongholds, for judging civil or unholy political strongholds, unholy warring nations, against adult bookstores, bars, or for any other circumstance where deliverance is needed and strongholds need to be torn down. The method is to outstretch the left arm and hand and decree, declare binding and proclaim judgment, destruction and closing down of the activity " by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, and loosing of the persons, place or thing "in the Name of Christ Jesus." Make the pronouncements once, then wait and see, backing your faith confession with a holy expectation that God will act. Remember, that the God who was active in the Old Testament with whom the prophets, priests, kings, and patriarchs were interacting, was God The Holy Spirit of Jesus. The Holy Spirit is the only part of the Godhead (Trinity) who has been continually on the Earth since the Creation, as the pre-Incarnate Jesus. This same Jesus The Holy Spirit is He whom the Old Testament Scripture speaks of as "The Lord", "My Angel", "the Angel of The Lord", "Melchizedek", "The Captain of The Host". These are all Old Testament titles of Christ Jesus. It is He who commands the outstretched arm and hand for blessing or judgment. So you ask, "By what authority, then, are we allowed to do the same?" By the New Testament command of Christ in John 14:12, " The things that I do you will do and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to The Father." When do you do so? When the Holy Spirit witnesses to you (Ro.8:16) as the first mouth of the double-mouthed sword Rev.1:16). you then speaking as the 2nd mouth of the double-mouthed sword. He will prompt your spirit to move and speak what He puts on your heart. (Note: In Rev. 1:16, the Word refers to the "two-edged sword". The literal New Testament Greek, however, more correctly refers to it according to its literal meaning: "the double-mouthed sword.".

20. The Power of Praise: (Ps.100:4; Ps.8:2; Ps.9:2-3; Ps.18:3; Ps.22:3)

Please read the following Bible verses to obtain an understanding of the power of praise:

Ps. 100:4 (KJV) Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

Ps. 18:3 (KJV) I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

Ps. 22:3 (KJV) But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Ps. 8:2 (KJV) Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

Ps. 9:2-3 (KJV) I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High. 3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

The most powerful form of prayer in Scripture is praise. It is the perfect prayer. It does all of the things that praying in tongues does. If you do not pray in tongues, then pray praise prayer to obtain the same blessings and revelations that tongues brings. There is power in praise. We conclude several deep revelations from the above scriptures:

1. Ps.100:4 tells us that we enter His gates with thanksgiving. Micah 2:13 tells us of the Breaker Anointing, Jesus being The Breaker, the one who brings breakthrough. It says that He leads us through the gate. Here, in Ps.100:4 it says we enter the gates with thanksgiving. As Christ leads us through His gate to breakthrough, then, we are to give thanksgiving and, then praise. Praise brings us into the courts of Heaven; we then bless His Name, which means that thanksgiving and praise bring us into His Presence. Through praise you have direct access to Christ. It glorifies God.
2. Ps.18:3 tells us that when we call upon the Lord, with praise, we are saved from our enemies. Thus, praise causes refuge in the Lord. It releases angelic ambushments, as it did for King Jehoshaphat. We are rescued from our Enemies.
3. Ps. 22:3 tells us that God inhabits the praises of Israel. Therefore, God inhabits our praise. Praise brings The Presence to us and upon us. Jesus comes on the scene, immediately.
4. Ps.8:2 Praise from our mouths ordains strength to come upon us, causing God to silence The Enemy and Avenger. It stops Satan.
5. Ps.9:2-3 tells us that praise to God's Name causes the Enemy to turn back, fall and perish in our presence.

Thanksgiving and praise is a powerful weapon for direct access to The Lord, for breakthrough, for coming into His Presence as He inhabits the praise, and for releasing ambushes against Satan and his minions; God rescues you and turns the Enemy back if difficult circumstances, giving you the victory.....to His praise and glory.

21. Using the Power of Faith-Confession: (Heb.3:1; Mk.11:22-24;Prov.18:21;Job 22:28; Lk.10:19;Lki.17:6)

" Faith-confession brings possession!"

Father God is a Faith-God. He does everything by faith, everything by prayer, everything by either blessing or cursing. There are many kinds of faith, some of which do not work. There is temporal faith, the type of faith you use when you go on an airplane and pray for a safe trip to your destination, thank God, and when you get off the plane, forget God for the rest of the week. That kind of faith does not work because even though directed to God, it is all about you and what you want. Then there is historical faith: believing the Jesus existed like you believe that George Washington existed because you learned about them in the history books. That kind of faith will not move God or help you. Then there is "Christian" Science faith which is mind-over-matter, and that will not help you because mind is soul and Jesus said "the things of the Spirit are spirit, and the things of the flesh are flesh". There is religious faith, faith in religion and religious beliefs or doctrines and traditions of men, with or without rituals, formalisms and ceremonies. That, too will not help you get anything from God because God is not a God of religion but a God of relationship, which is Covenant. God is not moved by rituals, formalisms, or ceremonies. He is moved only by prayer and faith on Him, alone with no doctrines or traditions of men, because He says in the Scriptures, "I share my glory with no one." He says it over and over again, in the Scriptures. So what is the kind of faith that moves God? It is called Abrahamic faith. We read about it in Romans Chapter 4- please pay attention to the highlighted brackets for in-depth interpretation:

[16] Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

[17] (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. [Faith calls those things that be not as if they already are.] [This is the definition of the God-kind of Faith.]

[18] Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. [Abraham had no hope to believe but he decided to believe, anyway. He set his will to believe (trust on God)]

[19] And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: [Abraham did not look at the circumstances, he walked by faith and not by sight.]

[20] He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; [Abraham did not permit unbelief, but set his heart strongly on trusting God (faith).

[21] And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. { He continually trusted that what God said, He would do.}

[22] And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. [It was credited to his account as FAITH. trusting God.]

So Abrahamic Faith or the Faith of Abraham consisted of walking by faith (trust on Christ) and not by sight. It disregards the circumstances and conditions, and keeps its hope and trust upon God, standing on the promises of God in the Scriptures.
It does not entertain doubt, and it is expectant, believing that God will do what He says He will do, and that He is able to perform it. In that sense, the reason that it pleased God was because Abraham's faith was the God-kind of faith, the same as the faith that God had when He created. He spoke things into existence releasing the words, as God did in Genesis Chapter 1 when it says ".....and God said....and it was", (that is, it happened) 9 times. God released His words, then went on to create the next thing. He did not stop to ponder about if what He said would work or not. That would be doubt, the enemy of faith. No, He simply released the words and believed that they would go forth and do what He intended. That is called the faith of God, or the God-kind of faith. God knew that words were creative and spiritual. He released them and trusted that they would do what He wanted them to do. This faith of God is not the same as faith in God. Faith in or on God, is the trust in God that we have to receive salvation, that once we ask Him to save us, He does so for the asking as we continue to trust Him. The faith of God is the faith to receive from God those things that we confess with our mouth, expecting to see what we say, happen; that our words would do what we intend. It is the faith to receive answers from prayers, faith for healing and deliverance, faith to empower our confessions to possess something such as a need, and the faith to receive a miracle.
I call it Creative Faith because it was the faith that Jesus used to create the universe and the Earth in Genesis Chapter 1.

Faith requires a faith-confession, aloud from the mouth. Faith-confession is always made using the present-tense of whatever verb we are using when we speak. REMEMBER that. It is important to know because in Hebrews 3:1, Jesus is called Apostle and High Priest of OUR confession.

Hebrews 3:1 King James Version
3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession*, Christ Jesus;

* some translations say “our profession”; either translation is acceptable. In the New Testament Greek the Greek word used in this verse means both. Jesus Christ is High Priest of the faith-filled words that come out of our mouth regarding what we say about our circumstances. Thus, present-tense faith-confession sounds like this:

“ I believe I am totally healed of this medical condition by the faith of God in Christ Jesus’ Name.”

POINT: Faith calls the things that are not as if they already are. In the statement above, that type of remark can only be made by someone who is not yet healed, calling the circumstance as if they are. It starts out”I believe” (present tense) I am healed.....”. Notice the person confessing is not saying that they are healed, they are saying that they BELIEVE (by faith) that they are healed: this is calling those things that be not as if they be [see the red-lettered verse above]. These are the dynamics of faith-confession. Here are three more examples:

“ I believe that money comes, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus’ Name.”

“ I call myself promoted in my job at work by the faith of God in Christ Jesus’ Name.”

“ I confess employment comes quickly by the faith of God in Christ Jesus’ Name.”

Why does faith-confession work? Words are spiritual, and when we release them by faith on Christ, they find their target, and the “happening” is in the words. Proverbs 18:21 says “ Life and death are in the power of the tongue, and those who engage it shall eat the fruits thereof.”. Fruit comes from seed. So the power of the tongue is to release seed. The seed released by the power of the tongue are faith-filled words delivered under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, that is, what the Holy Spirit puts on your heart to faith-confess when you are prayed up in thanksgiving, praise, giving The Lord Jesus Christ, glory, honor and worship. Now He, according to Hebrews 3:1 is called “High Priest of OUR CONFESSION.” But keep in mind that this verse says “Life and death are in the power of the tongue....” You can speak life to your circumstances or death to your circumstances through careless words. Words are spiritual. The “happening” is in the words. That is why, when Jesus created, He spoke things into existence and did not dwell on whether they would happen or not. So in Genesis Chapter 1, it says 9 times, “And God said.....and it was.” He did not stop to ponder what was happening between each step. He knew that “the happening” was in His Words, and that His words would do what He intended. He used the faith of God, or, the God-kind of faith. Now that Creator was Jesus. In John 14:12, that same Creator gives us a command: “The things I do you will do and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to the Father.” That is a command from the Commander-in-Chief, Himself, The Lord Jesus Christ. In that verse, He authorizes us to apply our faith, our words, the power given us in Lk.10:19 to bring the power of the Kingdom to the Earth to use and demonstrate it. It’s a God-thing and a good thing. Use it.

Jesus hears our confession. What does the High Priest do? He goes before Father God in the Heavenly Tabernacle, and tells Father God our confession. Father God is a Faith-God who sits on the Throne of Grace. He hears our confession. It fulfills the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ, which is the Law of Grace. Father God sits on the Throne of Grace and being pleased with our confession, He releases the Grace from the Throne upon the confessor and his circumstances, agreeing with the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ. Father God is performing His Word: Romans 8:1-2 that says “The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ has made you free from the Law of Sin and Death.” Notice, there are two laws operational in the life of the believer. If the believer practices sin, he/she is under the Law of Sin and Death. If the believer is walking spiritually upright before God and seeking His righteousness, he/she is fulfilling the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ. So we say:

Faith-filled words fulfill the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ
Fear-filled words fulfill the Law of Sin and Death

Keep in mind that fear is faith in the negative. It is the opposite of faith. The Word of God tells us that “all that is not of faith is sin.” Thus, fear-filled words would fulfill the Law of Sin and Death, as would doubt, unbelief, practice of rebellion, etc.. What does this all mean? It means that you can be a Spirit-filled, born-again, saved Christian and be walking in the Death Cycle, in which your continuing may bring upon you death to your circumstances, death to your walk of faith, or even physical death; or you can be walking as a Spirit-filled, born again Christian walking in the Life Cycle due to your practice of righteousness and holiness before God, to bring to your circumstances, both blessings and life to your circumstances, your faith walk, and even your body, mind and spirit.

It is important to learn as much about faith-confession as you possibly can, and apply it to your life and life circumstances, including spiritual warfare. I strongly recommend that the reader purchase the paperback book, "Dynamics of Faith-Confession" by the late Charles Capps, one of the great teachers of faith-confession whose video teachings are still also available on YouTube for all to see. This subject is included in this writing because Faith and Faith-Confession are viable and necessary tools of the Word of God. When used together and confessed aloud repeatedly, you will find that using the Faith of God and faith-confession, changes things.

22. Snagging, Routing and Destroying The Physical or Spiritual Enemy: Jaw Hooks, The Sword, Pestilence, Blood, Heavy Rain, Hail, Fire and Brimstone, Boomeranging, Backfiring, Dispatching Holy Hornets, Confounding The Enemy, Traps-Snares-Ambushes, Boxing and Caging, Binding and Loosing.

In using any of the following techniques of Scripture, you must first do the following: [1] be born-again (John 3:3,5), [2] yield to the Holy Spirit, [3] perform self-examination, confession, repentance for sin ((Ps.24:3-4), [4] put on the full armor of God (Eph.6), [5] ask (Mt. 7:7-8) the Holy Spirit which of the following Scriptural maneuvers to use for your circumstance. Then, [6] decree, declare and proclaim, snag and release upon and against the Enemy in your circumstance, using the scripture verses as a guide to speak what God did, "by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it." [7] Continue to pray repeatedly and regularly, several times daily, until you see the manifestation and breakthrough. You can also use the Breaker anointing against them if resistance is perceived in the spirit. Praying unto breakthrough or answer is what the 19th Century saints referred to as "praying through". Now, ask the Holy Spirit to lead you in the choice of tactics and strategies:

In these verses God fights to save Israel; we fight in-the-Spirit, against spirits, projectors, occultists, and all others who come against us, for we are "spiritual Semites" being sons of Abraham, also, by grafting in to the Abrahamic Covenant, and grafted in with Israel "that the two may become one new man." We respond as God responds because as Jesus, David, and Melchisedek, we are warrior-priest-kings (Rev.1:6) under Christ Jesus, designated by God as High Priest according to the Order of Melchizedek. We are sons of God by the Spirit of Sonship.* (Ro.8:14-19;Eph.1:5)

 Note: The above-referenced verses say we are sons "by adoption". The word "adoption" is not in the literal New Testament Greek manuscripts from whic the translations are taken. The literal Greek reads "by the spirit of Sonship".

A. Using jaw Hooks: Ezek. 38:4; Isa.37:29; Isa.37:36-37; Ezek..21-22, John 14:12.

A tactic to stop the advance and progress of The Enemy and forcefully turn them back to let them know who has the true power and authority; that when they attack the true Christian Believer, the anointed of God, they are attacking "The Anointing" of God. God's position is that it is time to give them a revelation of Who He Is, for it is He who is doing these things in you and through you (Acts 17:28)

Ezekiel 38:4
New International Version : 4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords.

Isaiah 37:29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

The hook in the jaw was a confrontational maneuver used by God to turn the invading Enemy back from where they came. Today, because we have freedom (John 8:36) and liberty (2 Cor.3:17) in Christ, we can either do that, since Jesus said that the things He does, we can do (John 14:12), or we can cast spirits to The Pit and bind them there, or the human afar to where they came from. When an forceful, deliberate, and malicious attack is perceived in the Spirit, we must [1] Bind them off in Christ Jesus' Name (Mt.16:19-"whatsoever"); [2] decree, declare and proclaim confounding and confusion upon them, [3] decree, declare and proclaim their plans and actions thrown into continual confusion and disarray, [4] invite and command, decree, declare and proclaim warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus go forth upon each and every one of them, and to put jaw hooks into their mouths or noses, and to corral them and forcibly lead them back to where they came from, or banish and scatter them permanently, "all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name."

This is an excellent prayer against lawlessness in the streets, street riots, group anarchists, street gangs, cartels, seditionists, military invaders, etc., and all groups seeking to dominate others by power and control.

Deuteronomy 28:7
New International Version: 7 The Lord will grant that the enemies who rise up against you will be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.

B. Routing, Stopping, Hindering, Obstructing and Destroying The Spiritual Enemy or Human or Alien Enemy:

Ezekiel 38:21-22 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

So do it. When Satan and his minions attack, bind the hierarchy as taught earlier, loose yourself-others-circumstances-etc., from them, and call forth warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus as follows:

"Father, in Christ Jesus' Name I invite and command, decree, declare and proclaim, that warrior angels come forth against The Enemy, Satan and his minions, all principalities, powers, rulers of the darkness, wicked spirits in high places, all of their human agents, alien agents, against all of their devices, and spiritual or physical armies, to bind and route them in the Name of Christ Jesus. I decree, declare and proclaim [The Sword, Pestilence, Blood, Heavy Rain, Hail, Fire and Brimstone] (choose one or more appropriate for the circumstance, be led by The Spirit and what He witnesses to your thoughts and/or impresses on your heart], to route, scatter and annihilate them and cast them to the Pit and chain them there until the Great White Throne Judgments (for spirits and aliens only), (or for humans: "scatter them in 7 directions"), and I permanently, immediately, completely and continually bind them up and off and decree retaliations, counterattacks, judgments-wrath-or-revenge of Satan forbidden to ever seed, manifest, actualize or realize in my life or that of my spouse, children, grandchildren, family members or relatives, and descendants, their spouses and children to 1000 generations and beyond, the duration of the Abrahamic Covenant, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, so be it."

C. Boomeranging- also known as The Law of Retribution, and "Return to Sender": Lev.24:19-21;Gal.6:7-8; Jer.50:15,29; Ps.55:9; Ps.140:9; Ps.7:15:16; Ps.64:8-10; Ruth 2:12; Ezek.7:27; Deut.19:18-19; Ps.7:15-16; 2 Chron.6:30

Leviticus 24:19-23
New American Standard Bible 19 If a man [a]injures his neighbor, just as he has done, so it shall be done to him: 20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; just as he has [b]injured a man, so it shall be [c]inflicted on him. 21 Thus the one who [d]kills an animal shall make it good, but the one who [e]kills a man shall be put to death. 22 There shall be one [f]standard for you; it shall be for the stranger as well as the native, for I am the Lord your God.'"23 Then Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones. Thus the sons of Israel did, just as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Deuteronomy 19:18-19
New American Standard Bible 18 The judges shall investigate thoroughly, and if the witness is a false witness and he has [a]accused his brother falsely,19 then you shall do to him just as he had intended to do to his brother. Thus you shall purge the evil from among you.

Galatians 6:7-8
New American Standard Bible 7 Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. 8 For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.

The above-mentioned scriptures are illustrative of the concept of The Law of Retribution. The first and second scriptures listed, reflect the justice of God in The Law: "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth". The third scripture, Galatians 6:7-8 is the New Testament equivalent, "what you sow you will reap". However, it is important to understand that all of the many scriptures of the Old Testament and New in regard to this principle, are speaking of God's justice. The concept of sowing and reaping, then, what some call "boomeranging" (a term now beginning to appear in some of the new, so-called "modern" Bible translations, is not necessarily a strictly negative idea. It is meant to convey the idea that if one intends evil toward another, that same evil will boomerang back upon their own heads. Scripture says so. If a person sends a blessing, however, a similar blessing will come back upon them. In the Galatians 6 verse, above, notice the word "WHATEVER". There is wide latitude for God's response when these verses are used. The issue, in all instances is justice and the righteousness of God. That then brings us to the discussion of what is the correct things to do? There are scriptures that tell us to love our enemies and bless those who persecute you, and other scriptures that tell us to war against evil doers and let their own sword enter their own heart. These things sound contrary to each other, yet they are in the same Bible. How do we reconcile what we are to do? Let's look at some of the scriptures:

Matthew 5:44 [A Forgiveness-Blessing Scripture]
New American Standard Bible: 44 But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you

Psalm 37:14-15 [A Boomerang Scripture]
New American Standard Bible: 14 The wicked have drawn the sword and bent their bow. To cast down the afflicted and the needy, To slay those who are upright in conduct.15 Their sword will enter their own heart, and their bows will be broken.

Psalm 35:7-8 [A Boomerang Scripture}
New American Standard Bible: 7 For without cause they hid their net for me; without cause they dug a [a]pit for my soul.8 Let destruction come upon him unawares, And let the net which he hid catch himself; Into that very destruction let him fall.

When we read the three scriptures above, Mt. 5:44 seems to be in opposition to the spirit in which Psalm 37:14-15 and Ps.35:7-8 are written. One might argue that things change from Old Testament to New Testament, and whereas in the Old Testament we were to oppose and wish upon our enemies the same thing that they wished upon us and were trying to impart to us, we are now New Testament people and the message of the New Testament is that of love and blessing and not cursing others. It sounds very plausible, doesn't it? But that is not what the scripture is trying to convey. Keep in mind that the Old Testament is not done away with: it is fulfilled in Christ. Now in Christ, we live and move and have our being (Acts 17:28), and although we do not keep the Law of the Old Testament, we do keep the truths of the Old Testament as Christ witnesses them to our conscience (spirit-man), and graces us to respond. We must reconcile these things also with the understanding that Malachi 3:6 tells us, " I am God. I change not.", and in Exodus 15:3 the Holy Spirit tells us, "The Lord is a man of war. The Lord is His Name." Remember, also, that in Him, the man of war who The Lord that we are doing the right thing?

The resolution of interpretation of scripture and action comes from understanding that Mt.5:44 and the two Psalms scriptures are talking about two different things. It would be absurd, if an enemy was trying to kill you and sabotage your life, to say to him, "Come here, I forgive you for wanting to harm me with your sword; now let me give you a holy kiss, as the Scripture mandates (2 Cor.13:12), and let's see if I can calm you." Or how about, " Before you pull the trigger, I want to tell you that I love you so much and so does Jesus." That would be the quickest way to loose your purpose and destiny in Christ, wouldn't it? So let me explain.

Mt. 5:44 is not talking about war with a human enemy. It is talking about human disagreements, people who have alienated themselves to you out of offense or hurt, or for some other reason. They have made themselves your social enemy, they begin to talk, and with their loose talk, they persecute you. Let's look at the word for "persecute". In the New Testament Greek, it is the Greek verb "dioko," literally meaning to flee, pursue, oppose, drive away, chase, persecute. The inference is that of hostile opposition to a person for an offense. In the two Psalms, the talk is about drawing the sword, bending the bow, slaying the upright with the sword, digging a pit for the soul, using a net trap to catch the person to do him/her with the sword.

Here is the issue. When a person takes opposition to another for an offense, the person who the hostility is being directed at, as a mature Christian, can stand of the Word of God and maintain an upright attitude toward the one taking offense, and show them unconditional love and forgiveness, understanding that they are hurt and angry. They do their best to show them love and to bless them. The people who are being described in the two Psalms mentioned above, represent quite a different story. The picture being painted by the Scriptures, here, are those of people who are so full of hate, envy, rage, war against you that they want to kill you, or at least kill your purpose and destiny in Christ. This raises the opposition to another level: to the level of war! They are determined to destroy you and deprive you of your God-given purpose and destiny in Christ. They put you in a position of having to respond because, in almost all instances, the Enemy, Satan and his minions and human agents or not-so-human agents, almost always come after you first. What is his ministry? To kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10) We do not go out looking for a fight just for fun. The Holy Spirit is telling us, that when these things happen and we come under an act of war by the Enemy, trying to deprive us of our Kingdom rights and privileges, our purposes and destinies in Christ, and to deprive our spouse and children of a husband and father, or a wife and mother, then the stakes are raised and the application of any and all Godly tactics and strategies that God used in the Scriptures, are ours to use. It is your right and privilege. Scripture says "The Lord will make you the Head and not the Tail. If you pay attention to their commands of the Lord your God that I give you this day, and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom." In Luke 10:19, Jesus said to us, " Behold, I have given you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of The Enemy, and nothing shall injure you." Well, if you're going to trample, TRAMPLE! As in the two Psalms above! Let's look at the following scripture:

Proverbs 26:27

New American Standard Bible27 He who digs a pit will fall into it, And he who rolls a stone, it will come back on him.

This scripture is a Boomerang scripture that illustrates well, the Law of Retribution. But the Law of Retribution need not always be for punishment for negative things such as attacks of the Enemy. There can be retribution of favor and blessing for those who do good to us or for us, also. Or it may be for the ministry of God's justice. Here are some scripture references to look up that demonstrate each:

Retribution for the justice of God:	Retribution prayers against harm/war:		Retribution prayer of Blessing:
Deut.19:18-19	Jer.50:15,29	Ruth 2:12.	Ps.7:15-16
Ezek. 7:27	Ps.55:9		Ps.140:9
Ps.64:8-10	Ps.10:2

Boomerang Prayer (Return to Sender):

1. Identify the thing that was sent to you (usually by witches, warlocks, shamans, mages, sorcerers, Satanists, New Agers, or through evil issues from the heart of others who do not mean you well:
2. Identify the root cause. If it is you, repent of whatever it is and the Lord's forgiveness in Christ Jesus' Name.
3. Break off any or all of the evil issues mentioned in Mark 7:20-23 below
4. Decree, declare and proclaim whatever work or issues spoken over you, formed against you, or direct at you, broken off of you and returned upon the head of the sender, that they may see a greater power and be converted to the Lord Christ Jesus, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

Note below that evil issues proceed from the heart of a person. The root cause is almost always jealousy, envy, offense, or one of the other issues mention in Mk.7:20-23 below. Note that one of the issues that proceed out of the heart is the evil eye: the person has a cunning, prolonged stare, perhaps with a smirk, and releases the soul-power intended toward you and its work/effect then takes hold and causes a negative reaction within you. Bind it, loose yourself, break it off and curse it at the roots and return it on the head of the sender. It is a war act. They must be given the message that they cannot do that and get away with it, and if they do, there will be consequences as it is returned back upon their own heads.

Proverbs 4:23
King James Version: 23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Proverbs 4:23
New American Standard Bible: 23 Watch over your heart with all diligence, For from it flow the springs of life.

Mark 7:20-23: [Evil Issues from the heart]
King James Version: 20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:
23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

5. Prayer and Decree To Address Evil Issues:

In Christ Jesus name and by His blood, I bind every evil issue of jealousy, envy, fear, pride, strife, confusion, selfish ambition, slander, greed, lust, lies, deceits, murder, control, destruction, competition, anger, division and all powers, spirits, entities, curses, agents and evil eye influences attached that flow from the hearts, souls and minds of { NAMES }. I bind, break off, loose [NAMES] and banish them all from me, all loved ones, and all that I am, have and possess, and my presence and decree they are all forbidden from coming against me and my life, health, safety, welfare, business and personal affairs in any way, manner or form, and bind them up and off from doing so, forever, all in Christ Jesus name. In Christ Jesus name I command all obstacles placed in my paths by them be removed and cast out, never to return. I confound, blind and bind every evil spirit, entity, power, agent, witchcraft, vexation, evil thought and imagination operating in, through, over, under, by, for, and around them. I bind up and forbid all retaliations, counter attacks, judgments, wrath's, revenges and reprisals from them, all these words I decree in the name and by the blood of Christ Jesus, to the Glory of The Father, So be it.

23. Appealing To The Court of Heaven: Lk. 18:1-8; Dan.7:9-10; Ps.82; 2 Ki.21:5;Ps.82:1; Ps.84:3, 11; Ps.92:14; Ps.96:8;Ps.100:4; Daniel 7:22; Micah 2:13 The Place To Go for Impossible Problems

Whenever you are troubled by a serious spiritual impasse in which there does not seem a way out and by which there seems to be no resolution, and you are faced with desperation because dire consequences are anticipated, or whenever you are involved in a legal difficulty in which there seems to be no resolve and it appears that your defense in court will be difficult, or that the circumstances in the court will likely be against you, you have a recourse of action: go to the Court of Heaven to plead your case. When the problem seems impossible to conquer or extricate yourself from it, or when all else, including prayer, seems to have failed, go to the Court of Heaven for resolution of your "impossible" circumstances.

There is much bad teaching out there regarding the Court of Heaven. One presumptuously arrogant Christian recently went so far to say on the Internet that if we would read his article, that he will put an end to the ungodly, unbiblical Court of Heaven practice "once and for all" for all who would read his article. He then proceeded to argue that Christ paid the price for all of our problems and defeated Satan for us, that the work of the cross was complete, and that He has given us the victory by His finished work of the Cross. He continues that He either did, or didn't, and we know that He did; therefore there is no need to go to the Court of Heaven and that it doesn't exist. It was apparent to me that the gentleman did not understand how to rightly divide the Word of Truth, and was leading people into much error. He was insisting that the many Christians writing on the Internet about the Court of Heaven and how to access it were all wrong, and that he was correct in his stance. Is what He said true? Partially. He did not give the full story because he apparently lacked the knowledge to give the full story. So let's clarify why this individual is dead wrong.

There are several scriptures about the Court of Heaven. The hallmark scripture confirming its existence is in Daniel 7:9-10

New American Bible (Revised Edition)9 [a]As I watched, Thrones were set up and the Ancient of Days took his throne.
His clothing was white as snow, the hair on his head like pure wool; His throne was flames of fire, with wheels of burning fire.
10 A river of fire surged forth flowing from where he sat; Thousands upon thousands were ministering to him, and myriads upon myriads stood before him. The Court was convened, and the books were opened.

In Psalm 82, we see the assembly of the Court of Heaven, referred to as "the assembly of the representatives of God", in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives judgment as among the gods". This is a picture of God, the Supreme Judge of the Court of Heaven, judging and reprimanding unjust human judges of the earth for showing partiality to the wicked. This Psalm gives us a picture of the Court of Heaven "in session", and God scolding human judges and questioning them. This, in turn, establishes that the Court of Heaven is the Supreme Court of the Universe with God as Supreme Judge presiding over the Court and over all the human courts of the Earth. He is aware of their wickedness. He is watching them. He calls them into His Presence and reprimands them. He is, therefore, involved in and ruling over all of the human courts of the Earth. It's in the Word. Here it is:

Psalm 82
Amplified Bible, Classic Edition
Psalm 82 A Psalm of Asaph.
1 God stands in the assembly [of the representatives] of God; in the midst of the magistrates or judges He gives judgment [as] among the gods.2 How long will you [magistrates or judges] judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah [pause, and calmly think of that]! 3 Do justice to the weak (poor) and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and needy.4 Deliver the poor and needy; rescue them out of the hand of the wicked. 5 [The magistrates and judges] know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in the darkness [of complacent satisfaction]; all the foundations of the earth [the fundamental principles upon which rests the administration of justice] are shaking.6 I said, You are gods [since you judge on My behalf, as My representatives]; indeed, all of you are children of the Most High. 7 But you shall die as men and fall as one of the princes. 8 Arise, O God, judge the earth! For to You belong all the nations.
 several translations say "God stands in "the Divine Council", that is, The Court of Heaven

In Luke 18:7, we see God speaking of the unjust judge being bothered by a badgering widow who keeps pursuing him to obtain favor from him. He decides to rule in her favor just to get her away from him. In verse 7, however, we read the God will protect and avenge His elect who cry to Him day and night, and that He will not defer justice for them. This is speaking of God's intervention as Supreme Court Judge of the Universe on behalf of the people of the Earth. This verse shows us that The Court of Heaven is, indeed, involved with the courts of the Earth and the welfare of the people of the Earth.

From these three verses, it should be apparent to you that it is a matter of Divine revelation that there is a Court of Heaven, that Father God is the Supreme Judge of the Universe and over all the judges and courts of the Earth, and that God is willing and ready to intervene on behalf of His people to bring righteousness and justice to their problems on the Earth. Most important is the fact that there is a Court of Heaven to go to. There are many, many\Christian ministries on the Internet whose websites teach the Court of Heaven teaching. If it was not true or did not work, then why teach it? The answer to that is because it's in the Bible!

Let's get back to the man on the Internet when he insisted that there is no such thing as the Court of Heaven intercession on behalf of believers, and that the church should stop teaching such false doctrine immediately because the work of the Cross is complete and Jesus said "It is finished." He maintains that if the work of salvation is finished, there is nothing more that the believer need do but wait for the Lord's manifestation in their lives since He has done all for us. What is the problem here? The problem is that this brother-in-Christ, and all who think like him, fail to realize that the work of the Cross brought immediate and complete salvation to our spirit or spirit-man. The spirit-man (conscience, intuition, perceiver) is totally and continually saved. The problem, however, lies with the soul-man (mind, will, emotions) which is not yet saved, according to Romans 12:2 that tells us "Be you transformed by the renewal of your mind....". Your mind is your soul. The Scripture says that your soul is in need of renewal, that is, of being saved and regenerated anew. That is a lifetime process complete "in the day of Christ Jesus" which is the day of The Rapture, or the day of your personal rapture, your death. Mt.5:48 tells us the requirement to go to The Father: "Be you perfect as your Father in Heaven is perfect." No man is perfect, of his own effort, before God Man has a problem that only Jesus can solve through His work of the Cross, taking our sins on Himself and crucifying them in the death work of the Cross, shedding His Perfect Blood for us to cleanse us from all sin, once for all sin, once for all men, once for all time. His perfect life and perfect Blood is credited to us in Heaven when we are born-again, fulfilling the requirement of Mt 5:48. It is a trade deal between each of us and Jesus: he gives us His life and we give Him our life. It is a changed life for an exchanged life. BUT, that is in the spirit-man. The soul-man must be transformed by the Word and The Spirit over our lifetime until we come to completion in the "day of Christ Jesus.", at which time the requirement to go to The Father is completed in us by Jesus. Until that time, the yet non -regenerated soul-man is victim to sin, Satan, and circumstances. Satan will hinder in whatever way he can to foil God's plans for our lives, and to try to rob us of our purposes and destinies. He may bring accusations, false accusations, litigations, thefts, crimes, severe illnesses, and many other things that we can extricate ourselves from by our own efforts, no matter how hard we try. It is common to see Christians caught in spiritual traps and snares of Satan and have no way out. That is what the Court of Heaven is for. I can tell you from personal experience in using it over the years, that when you see the power of God come down upon you and your circumstances after you go to the Court of Heaven and plead your case, you will be amazed at the magnitude of God's response on your behalf because He cares for you and loves you and wants to be involved with all areas of your life. The results, alone, will prove to you and confirm that it is real. I often find that those who oppose the things of The Holy Spirit are the very ones who do not have a full relationship with the Holy Spirit, most lacking the Baptism in the Holy Spirit and many relying on their religious upbringing. God does not call you to be religious. God calls you to be holy. Taking God at His Word will go a long way in getting you there. . So they may doubt and they want you to doubt. Misery loves company! .

HERE ARE THE STEPS TO PETITION THE COURT OF HEAVEN

First, be calm, humble and reverent. Reverence is not religiosity. Know who it is that you are presenting yourself to: Father God, the Most High Judge of the Universe. Know that it is certain that He is listening and hears you. He makes Himself available to you because He loves you.

It is remarkable how similar the Court of Heaven operates like Earthly human courts. No wonder, for the Earthly human courts have their origin and existence from the Court of Heaven, the Court that rules them. It has the right to overrule, cancel, arrest, and abrogate (repeal, do away with) any human court action, decision, imposition, sentence, or punishment, or any such things from adversarial persons. The Court of Heaven has Father God as the Judge, the Lord Jesus Christ as your Defense Attorney, and the Cloud of Witnesses to testify on your behalf. When the Judge is Jesus' Father and your Father, and Jesus is your Brother and Savior and Son of The Judge, and the Cloud of Witnesses have all the testimony ready to tell Jesus and The Father because they have been watching your life and activities throughout you life and have seen, and witnessed all that has happened to you so that they can confirm it to the Court, all things are in your favor. Think about it: the Judge is your Father, Jesus is your Brother and Savior, and the Cloud of Witnesses have already decided that they will testify on your behalf because they have seen all, and all are lovers of truth. That's a God-thing and a good thing!

Here are the steps to follow:

a. be born-again (John 3:3,5). If you are not, ask aloud from your heart- "Lord Jesus Christ, I am truly sorry for all sins of my past and present and choose Godly repentance, and renounce them. I invite you into my heart to be Lord, that is to lead me through life, and to be my Savior, that is, save me from sin, self, and circumstances. I testify of you before men as my Lord and Savior and confess that you were resurrected from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit. I receive you by faith (trust) on You alone for my salvation, and I thank you for the free gift of eternal life which I cannot earn of deserve. Come into me now, Lord Jesus Christ, I ask it by the faith of God in Your Holy Name, so be it.

b. Ask Father God to baptize you in His Holy Spirit and release the 9 gifts of the Spirit in you and through you He will do so for the asking (Lk.11:10-13). They will manifest in God's Timing, and a necessary experience to have as part of the Christian faith walk, although not necessarily required to go to the Court of Heaven.

c. Privately, self-examine and confess to the Lord all of your sins, aloud, and repent of them before presenting yourself to Father God and the Court. "Who can stand on the hill of the Lord except he who has a pure heart and clean hands" (Ps.24:4)

d. Yield to The Holy Spirit in Christ Jesus' Name and pray-in-the-Spirit (tongues), or if you do not speak in tongues, praise does the same things that tongues does. So, use praise and worship prayer, (praying from the praise psalms 140-150 is also helpful). Pray up for 10-15 minutes or until you perceive in your spirit-man (conscience and intuition) a "release" from the Holy Spirit that you can stop, and proceed to the next step.

e. Prepare your evidence to defend your case: You will be making a plea for the Court to act on your behalf. Just as in human courts, you will need evidence to enter into the Court's record as to why you believe that Father God, the Judge of the Court, should act on your behalf and rule in your favor. Your evidence will be several scriptures that support your position and desire for Him to act. I usually use 5-9 or more such scriptures. At the appropriate time, after you have presented your cause, you will tell Father that you will now enter into the Court's record the following evidences of Scripture, and then read them aloud to Father God. It will be best to have them written down so that you can read them off without forgetting a single one.

2.. Know your legal rights in the Kingdom of God: Human courts are patterned after proceedings of the Court of Heaven. The Court of Heaven is the Highest Court in the Universe and governs all human courts. Scripture says that God rules over the affairs of men.(Dan.4:25) We are therefore under his jurisdiction and as sons and daughters of God, are entitled to go above the human courts. In most issues that you bring to The Court, you will in almost all cases be acting as the Plaintiff, and you will name the perpetrator of your problem as the Defendant. The Defendant, in almost all cases, will be Satan, or one of his demonic spirits, or one of his human (or not-so-human) agents, who, as you know, are all liars, who operate only by the lie, and who, therefore, are useless to The Court both as defendants and in their testimonies against you. In this, The Court of Heaven differs from human courts. Since the Defense Attorney in the Court of Heaven is the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of The Most High Judge of The Court, who is your Father, and Jesus, your Brother, and since scripture says that you are a son or daughter of God, it will become obvious to you that this Court is a "family court". The Father/Judge is always ready and willing and able to hear your complaint, and to hear your cause of action, and act on your behalf. You will always win your case if you plead your cause, justly, provide evidence as to why the Court should act on your behalf (evidence entered will always be scriptures that justify your action and plead your cause because God performs His Word (Jer.1:12).

3. Present yourself to The Court of Heaven : [Know that from this point forward you will be speaking aloud directly to Father God, the Supreme Judge of the Universe and Supreme Judge of the Court of Heaven that has jurisdiction over a lol earthly nations and human courts, for Scripture says "all things follow the counsel of God's Will. Nothing is "over" until God says that it's over. You will now present yourself to Him covering the following principles:

a. Enter His Gates with Thanksgiving, and Enter His Courts with praise. Say something like this aloud: "Father, I enter Your Gates with Thanksgiving and enter Your Courts with Praise and present myself to you to plea my cause before you. My name is_____. (God knows, but it is important to name yourself for the other members in attendance to know, including the Cloud of Witnesses who are likely to intercede for you while you are there. They are not omniscient. Only God is omniscient.)

b. Present your credentials that permit you to access the Court. Say something like this aloud: "Father, I present my credentials to access this holy Court. They are: The Blood of Christ Jesus, and the born-again experience. I enter Your Gates with thanksgiving and I enter Your Court with praise, and I give you glory and honor and worship for the privilege of boldly approaching your Throne of Grace in my times of need, with praise and thanksgiving, so be it."

4. Enter your purpose and complaint: Speak to Father God as the Supreme Judge of the Supreme Court of the Universe. You may say something along these lines, or use any of the passages in this writing to make your statements if you desire. Father God is not a legalist. For instance, you can say, " Father, I humble myself before. you and ask if may I speak?" (wait for the answer in your thoughts or, on occasion, in your external hearing); wait a few moments for Father God to respond, to see if He wants to say something to you, first. If and when He instructs you to proceed, state why you are there, why you have come to the Court of Heaven, in other words, what has happened to you and by whom (Satan, one of Satan's minions, a human enemy, an accuser, a dangerous threat made, etc.), and tell Father that you are seeking remedy and relief from Him and the Court. Remember, you are seated in heavenly places (Eph.2:6), so you will speak with confidence and in the Believer's Authority.

5. Present the Details of the Problem: "Father, I address you and the Cloud of Witnesses (Jury) in the Name of Christ Jesus, my ready defense":

1. Why you are there.
2. Name the Defendant and tell The Court what the Defendant did to you.
3. What the problem or issue is that prompted you to seek remedy from the Court of Heaven.
4. What, exactly, has happened to you or the person for whom you care coming to the Court, if, in the latter circumstance, you are going to the Court of Heaven on behalf of someone else.
5. Now give the details of what happened to you, and why. What were the consequences, how it has affected you and how you were harmed or hindered in any way that would interfere with your civil or spiritual rights in the Kingdom of God, of which you are a citizen.
6. Tell Father God what you believe went wrong, was wrong, and why you could find no resolution to the problem at the human level (and if you tried).
7. Tell Father what your present feelings are (if there is unforgiveness, your MUST deal with it and forgive the offending human party and yourself before going to The Court, or Father will not act on your behalf.)
8. Explain to Father God what you think the remedy for the problem should be, that is, what you want Him to do.
9. Speak to The Defendant in-the-Spirit: "Father, I speak to the defendant and accuse him/her before The Court of Heaven of perpetrating upon me the act/work of iniquity and harm that has caused the following harm(s) to me: (name them). I ask the Court to find him/her guilty for the following reasons that I now enter as Court's Evidence." the following scriptures: (If it is Satan or a spirit, bind first in the Name of Christ Jesus' and ask the Court to have a warrior angel escort them out of the Court and back to their own domain at the end of the hearing.)

6.. Enter Court's Evidence: Before presenting yourself to The Court, as I said earlier, prepare a list of scripture verses to enter into The Court's evidence for Father God's consideration. You will need to find scriptures on the subject of your complaint, scriptures that Father God speaks about in regard to what is happening to you, or regarding the consequences that are presently out of your control. Nave's Topical Bible is a great help in searching out lists of scriptures by topic. This section is very essential because God says in the scriptures, "Keep me in remembrance", which means 'Remind Me of My Word." Hear the Lord:

> Isaiah 43:26
> New International Version
> 26 Review the past for me, let us argue the matter together; state the case for your innocence.
>
> Here is the same verse, expressed through dynamic equivalent translation:
>
> Isaiah 43:26
> New American Standard Bible

26 “[a]Put Me in remembrance, let us argue our case together; State your cause, that you may be proved right.

Now, Speak continue to speak aloud, for the verses you will use are rhema revelation of the written Word, they are now in the Court of Heaven, you are seated in heavenly places (Eph.2:6), and Jesus said that the "things of the Spirit are spirit..." (John 3:6), and you are the 2nd mouth of the double-mouthed Sword (of the Spirit) (Rev.1:16), therefore your verses are coming out of your mouth as Rhema revelation in the Court of Heaven. Romans 10:8 says "We speak the Word of faith."
Say, " Father, I enter into this Court's evidence, the following scriptures that will justify my cause, define the problem, and justify why I believe that You should act on my behalf and rule in my favor. I enter Evidence #1, this verse that says (read it aloud); Evidence V#2, this verse that says (read it aloud); Evidence #3 that says (read it aloud),etc....and continue on, enumerating and reading each scripture reference until you have read the total number of scriptures that you want to present to The Father as evidence for your cause and for justification for Him to act on your behalf. I usually use 5-10 scriptures as evidence in most cases, but yield to the Holy Spirit first, to lead me.
If the complaint and pleading of the saints are righteous and justified, God will always rule in favor of the saints (the believers on Christ):

Daniel 7:22
New American Standard Bible
22 until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was [a]passed in favor of the [b]saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the [c]saints took possession of the kingdom.

7. Pleading for Relief:
" Father God, I have submitted to This Court, the history and evidence of wrongdoing and unrighteous acts committed against me by _____name(s)_____ (or Satan, or The Enemy, or the spirit of (name), etc.); I ask you to enter my plea for relief into the Court record on the basis that these things that were perpetrated against me came from the Kingdom of Darkness, and their unrighteous and presumptuous arrogance in believing that they had a right to do what they did, when, in actuality, I do not belong to their kingdom, I am Your son/daughter, Most High God, and therefore not in their kingdom or jurisdiction. They have no scriptural basis, legal right, or authority to be doing those works of evil against me that they are doing. I ask You to rule against the Enemy and all of their works against me, to destroy them, and to deliver me (mention others if necessary) from their unholy spiritual intrusions into my life. [At this point you may ask for additional relief such as:

1. a Cease and Desist Order
2. a Restraining Order
3. an Order of Restitution
4. an Order against Trespass continue with your pleading:

"Father God, I rest my case and ask you to rule in favor of my petition for relief and justice in regard to the circumstances presented. I also request, Father, that a permanent Restraining Order (or other) be issued by the Court and delivered to a warrior angel assigned by the Court to deliver it to (name person or entity or Satan), in and by the Spirit of Power and Might of The Holy Spirit, and to read it aloud to them deliver it into their hands, binding them to obey, and all in the Name of Christ Jesus, to Your Glory, Father, so be these things."

8. Rest Your Case: You can say, " Father God, with your permission, I now rest my case and submit it to you for your consideration and action. "My eyes are on You." (2 Chron.20:6) I ask for uncommon favor from the Court of Heaven, to Your praise and glory, first, in all things, and I look to You, by the faith of God in Christ, for Your favor and righteous judgment, for your Word says, "....Shall not the Judge of all the Earth do right?" I know You will, My Father, for I look to You with the Faith of God, holy expectation, and hope, for it is written again, "Then you will know that I AM the Lord; those who hope in Me will not be disappointed." I rest my case, Father, and I give you thanks, praise, glory, honor and worship, for Who You Are, Amen.

9. Final Statement: "Father, I thank you for extending to me the time to present my case and the evidence for which I believe and ask that you rule in my favor. I know I have spoken at length and You have been very gracious and patient to listen, for which I am deeply grateful to you and to the Cloud of Witnesses and the members of The Court. Father God, is there anything that you would like to say to me before, dismissing me? If so, please speak, Lord, for I am willing to listen.

(Wait a short moment for His answer. If He answers and speaks, heed his comments, admonitions or instructions, then give Him thanks, praise and glory for sharing it with you.; then ask Him if you may be dismissed? If He says "Yes.", wait for Him to decree, "The Court of Heaven in now adjourned.", then proceed to the last step.

10. Dismissal- Respond aloud: " Father God, I bless you, the Cloud of Witnesses, and all members of This Court who are present here, in the Name of Christ Jesus, and I now dismiss myself from this Court hearing with deep gratitude and thanksgiving. Amen.

FINAL COMMENTS ON THE COURT OF HEAVEN STRATEGY:

The steps used in this section are a guide as to how to maneuver your way through the Court of Heaven. They are given as examples and as a template to build your knowledge and experience of how to approach the Court of Heaven and its Supreme Judge, Father God. You may use the statements in each step, as is, if you so desire, so that you develop a pattern of understanding that human courts are patterned after the Court of Heaven. As time passes and you gain more experience, I encourage you to be led by the Holy Spirit to express yourself with your own Spirit-filled words, when you finally get to learn the steps and what to say, no longer word-for-word but idea-for-idea, so that you still cover all that needs to be covered, but in your own words.

After you have dismissed yourself from The Court, continue to "pray through" with faith-confessions and holy expectation. Do not permit your faith to waiver or you will receive nothing from The Lord (James 1:6-7). Know that after leaving The Court, it may take up to 3 or more weeks before you get the answer. It will usually come as an abrupt change of circumstances, a word of knowledge, a word of wisdom of what to do or what action to take, or as a deliverance or healing, or a miracle or turning of someone's heart toward you. Scripture says, "God is able to turn the heart of the king."(Prov.21:1) and "When a man is at peace with His God, even his enemies favor him." (Prov.16:7). The Holy Spirit will give you a witness that your petition to the Court of Heaven has been answered and granted.

There are occasional circumstances where obstinate circumstances arise, and/or God has not yet granted what has been asked in The Court. These are circumstances in which The Lord is usually using a trial or tribulation to form, make, mold, or break the person more, into the image and likeness of what He wants them to be. When He is done with that work within a person, the Holy Spirit will witness it. In such cases, it may be necessary to petition to the Court of Heaven one or more times before you see the breakthrough.
Be persistent with holy expectation. God wants to see your faith. If you are met with repeated disappointments, which is extremely rare, do self-examination for legal grounds to unanswered prayer. You can go to our website at www.walkinginpower.org. When the Homepage opens, scroll to the top toolbar and click on "Books". Find the book title "The Saints in Light". Go to the section on Prayer and find the chart

"27 Reasons for Unanswered Prayer". Use it as an inventory of your life and behavior, to see if any of those conditions apply to you. If so, confess, repent and bring forth "fruit meet for repentance." Wait a short while to demonstrate to yourself and The Lord that your repentance is genuine, and try the Court of Heaven prayer again. If the problem continues, ask the Holy Spirit for the revelation of the cause, and what to do. Scripture also says, "you receive not because you ask not" and asking must always be "in the Name of Christ Jesus". Another possible reason for not obtaining favor from the Court of Heaven would be because of "asking amiss", as the Scripture calls it. "Asking amiss" means asking for something that would be outside of the Word or Will of God.

24. Asking "in the Name of Christ Jesus"- The Answered Prayer: John 14:12-14; John 15:7; John 16:23; Mt.7:7-8

There is power in asking in the Name of Christ Jesus. Some say "in the Name of Jesus Christ". What is the difference. You will note in your studies of the Word that there are scriptures that refer to Jesus Christ and other scriptures that refer to Christ Jesus. Have you ever wondered why? The answer is this: Whenever a scripture refers to The Christ as "Jesus Christ", the verse is referring to His ministry as Son of Man, and, therefore, the thing being spoken of, will be interpreted in the context of His ministry, teaching, healing and deliverance, all through His humanity, operating in the Baptism of The Holy Spirit. When the term "Christ Jesus" is used, the order of the words signifies something quite different. The Word "Christ", or "Christos" in the New Testament Greek, means "The Anointed One" of God. Thus, "Christ Jesus" refers to His Messianic authority and power, and such scriptures using that term, will reflect His Divinity in Messianic actions, power, and authority to rule. When we invoke the Name of The Lord in asking, we are asking for grace, favor, answers to supplications, divine guidance, and other things that are governed by the supernatural. Therefore, we ask "in the Name of Christ Jesus" which means that we are invoking His Messianic Power and Authority. We are encouraged by Scripture to call upon Him for our needs. Let's examine some scriptures:

The Answered Prayer

John 14:12-14 “Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. 13 And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If you [c]ask anything in My name, I will do *it.

John 16:23 "And in that day you will ask Me nothing. Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you.[24] Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full."

John 15:7 If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you[b] will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you. 8 By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

25. Using Commanding Power: Gen.1:26; Luke 16:7; John 11:31-43; Acts 3:6; Luke 10:17; Luke 10:19; Mt.8:32; Rev.18:4; John 14:12

> John 14:12 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes [trusts] in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father."

The word "command" means "to impose authority over". Commanding power is little used in the Christian faith, today. Christians are quick to use prayer and faith-confession but rarely use commanding power. Yet, commanding power is an absolute necessity to use when coming up against demonic spirits. If they sense that you know nothing about commanding, they will rise up against you in spiritual attack by using lies and deception. In Luke 10:17, the apostles ran to Jesus, saying, "Master, even the demons obey us in Your Name." The Apostles commanded demons! In Luke 10:19, Jesus said, "I give you power to trample over serpents and scorpions {Satan, fallen angels, demons) and authority over all the power of the Enemy [that would include Satan] ; and nothing shall harm you." Brackets [.] mine.

A command is a declarative sentence. Jesus commanded demons. He did not negotiate with them. He did not run from them. He ran at them! Learning to command demons, the wind, the waves, the dead to rise, trees to whither, healings to come forth, deliverances to happen, etc., are all demonstrations of Kingdom power and when used, you are bringing the power of the Kingdom to the Earth. "The Kingdom comes in power, not in words." (1 Cor.4:20) To use commanding power, you must be born-again, baptized in the Holy Spirit, Spirit-filled and Spirit-led by yielding to the Holy Spirit on a daily basis, and walking by faith and not by sight. (2 Cor.5:7) When you use phrases such as "I decree, declare and proclaim...." you are using commanding power. Let's look at some scriptural examples.

Genesis 1:26
New King James Version
26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over [a]all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." [God was saying, let them have command over...."]

Luke 17:6
New King James Version
6 So the Lord said, "If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. [ Here, Jesus is teaching that a command should be followed by obedience.]

John 11:41-43 The Raising of Lazarus- "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.42 And I know that You always hear Me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me." 43 Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" [Commanding power to raise the dead].

Acts 3:6 Then Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." [Commanding power for healing]

Mt.8:32 Jesus command the demons called "Legion" to come out the Gadarene demoniac:
And He said to them, "Go." So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water.[Commanding power for deliverance]

Rev. 18:4 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. [Commanding power to order people out of Mystery Babylon, the false church that rises to great power in the endtime.] [This is a command from the Commander-in-Chief, Himself.]

The scriptures above give several examples of how commanding power is used in The Scriptures. God used it. The apostles used it. Christ gives us the power and authority to use it. (John 14:12; Lk.10:17,19; Job 22:28; Mk.11:23-24; Prov.18:21). When delivered by faith under the Believer's Authority, the Enemy must obey.
You will find that using commanding power for spiritual warfare, healing, deliverance, and the other reasons previously mentioned, will build your confidence and identity in Christ. When you see the power of the Kingdom work in you and through you, you will come to know who you are in Christ.

25. RELEASING THE HORNETS OF GOD AGAINST THE ENEMY: Deut.7:20; Exo.23:28; Josh.24:12

Deuteronomy 7:20

Moreover, the Lord your God will send the hornet against them, until those who are left and hide themselves from you perish.

Exodus 23:28

I will send hornets ahead of you so that they will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites before you.

Joshua 24:12

Then I sent the hornet before you and it drove out the two kings of the Amorites from before you, but not by your sword or your bow.

In John 3:6, Jesus said "The things of the flesh are flesh, and the things of the Spirit are spirit. Words are spiritual. They are creative. Just as Jesus spoke things into existence, we can speak things into existence when prompted by the Holy Spirit, the first mouth of the double-mouthed sword, and we being the second mouth. (Rev.1:16). Mark 11:23-24 tells us, "Speak to the mountain; if you say to the mountain, "Be uprooted and cast into the sea, believing in your heart without doubt, you will have whatsoever you say." In John 14:12, Jesus also said, "The things that I do, you will also do, and greater things than these shall you do, for I go to The Father." It is The Holy Spirit of Jesus who is speaking in these verses, being the only part of The Godhead that has been on the Earth since The Creation. Here are some power points to glean from these verses:

1. The hornets of God, in Deut.7:20, will be sent by God against the Enemy (1st Mouth of the double-mouthed sword. You, the second Mouth, will speak the release, search and destroy. They will perish where they are hiding. A perfect technique of spiritual warfare to search out the physical and alien enemy and their spacecraft and motherships or wherever they are "cloaked", or even evil Kenites. The Scripture says that although they hide, they will be found and they will perish.
2. In Exodus 23:28, God, when He prompts us to release them against the Enemy, sends the spiritual hornets ahead of us to drive them out before us. Who are they? "the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites". These were all nephilim giants. So were the Kenites the descendants of Cain, and the descendants of the unholy cherubim, the fallen angels who cohabitated with human women in Genesis 6:1-6, whose offspring were called "the fallen ones" (Hebrew: "nephilim"). In Isaiah 13:3,5 we read:

   > [3] I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness. [5] They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

   In these verses, God calls his "sanctified ones", that is, His angels, and "my mighty ones". The Hebrew for "mighty ones" is "gibborim", and it is a synonym for "nephilim". Notice that they will come from the "end of the heaven", that is, from the farthest outreaches of the Universe. How will they get here? The way that they left when God destroyed the pre-Adamic civilization, by spacecraft. Remember, they were nephilim, half human and half-fallen angel. They had angelic intelligence. They had a knowledge of biology, genetics, physics, engineering, flight, metallurgy, and all else needed to build space craft to go out and invade other areas of the Universe because Satan wanted to be as God, and be in control of all of the Universe. God says that in these last days, He will bring them back. For what reason? To be the "airforce" of the Antichrist when he comes to power, so that God may destroy them all. In Exo.23:28. God is battling for Israel, and demonstrates to us, that the Hornets of God are particularly designated to drive out the nephilim.

3. In Joshua 24:12, God sends the Hornets ahead of Joshua to assist him in conquering and inhabiting Judah. Two things are worthy of notice: 1] two kings of the Amorites are being driven out, both nephilim tribes, and 2] without the sword or bow. No human weapons were necessary. Again, God goes before and gives the victory. In all three verses, God involves Himself in the battles to assure defeat of the Enemy.

Here is a Prayer Strategy you can use:

1. First determine if the Enemy is human, demonic, or alien or of Artificial Intelligence, then discern the source by yielding to The Holy Spirit and asking for revelation and direction.
2. Determine if you have to destroy their stronghold(s) also, and what they are (such as extraterrestrial spacecraft such as UFO's, alien space stations, alien satellites, alien motherships, human covens or evil organizations, alien headquarters on other planets (yes, they exist), or evil human beings on God's directions, only.
3. Cover yourself, all loved ones, all that you are, have and possess with the Blood of Christ Jesus and pray a hedge of protection around all; Decree, declare and proclaim yourself and all loved ones "cloaked" by decreeing yourself invisible, inaudible, unlocatable, and inaccessible, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, and decree retaliation, counterattack, judgments, wrath, or reprisals of Satan, immediately, completely, permanently, and continually forbidden, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

4. Pray aloud: "Father God, in Christ Jesus' Name and by His Blood, I decree, declare and proclaim the release of the Hornets of God in multiple hives, too numerous to count, to go forth to identify, search out and destroy the strongholds of the Enemy (name particular enemies by discernment of The Spirit), to isolate them, corner them, route them out of their hiding places, and to destroy them all and their works and (name whatever else they have that needs destruction, such as ; reinforcements, spacecraft, alien satellites, alien space stations wherever located, alien motherships, witchcraft covens, Satanic covens, secret societies, witches, warlocks, shamans, mages, sorcerers, nephilim strongholds, Kenite strongholds, subversives and anarchists against legitimate governments, demonic spirits attempting to destroy family members or to harm children, etc.). Decree infestations of Hornets of God into their strongholds, and decree them invisible and unlocatable, to sting and torment relentlessly. I decree, declare and proclaim that the Hornets of God attack in overwhelmingly huge numbers, relentlessly and continually, to sting, torment, and drive the Enemy and its human or alien or demonic agents into the sea, and destroy their works, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. Chase the Enemy relentlessly even on threat of return, and box, cage and destroy them by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. If physical alien entities: decree warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus dispatched to locate them, identify the perpetrators, and slay them and their equipment used for harassment of the body or mind control, remove human captives or other interplanetary victims from their ship(s), and attack and destroy their spacecraft and motherships, and cause them to implode upon themselves, and then explode, by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. Decree retaliations forbidden and the source of all prayers and actions cloaked and unidentifiable, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. I give you Thanks, Praise and Glory, Father; Thanks, Praise and Glory, Lord Jesus Christ; Thanks, Praise and Glory, Holy Spirit. So be all of these things by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name."

5. Ask The Holy Spirit to give you a confirmatory internal vision when the feat is accomplished, "in Christ Jesus' Name.". You will usually see a brief picture such as a craft exploding, or of several, one after another, very briefly flash in front of your eyes in your field of vision, as a confirmation. Do not have compassion on any evil entity. They are on assignment to kill, steal and destroy. They have Satan's ministry. You have a greater ministry in Christ Jesus and all authority over the Enemy. (Lk.10:17,19)

26. STRATEGY#26-DESTROYING ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE :Scriptures Against Artificial Intelligence are: Isa.45:5; Isa.59:1-21; Rev.13:15; Gen.11:4; Dan.2:40-43; Isa.43:10

One of the greatest dangers to human civilization and survival is the development of artificial intelligence, which is not perfect and which can never be perfect because it is created by man, who is imperfect. Based on the psychological and physical law of cause and effect, that is, no effect can be greater than its cause, artificial intelligence is destined by God to be eventually doomed. As we are seeing, however, it is already beginning to how it faults and do its damage to society. According to CB Insights Research Briefs, there are already several reports of dangerous situations arising. It reports that a Tesla Model 3 owner died in California while driving his Tesla on Autopilot. They report that an Uber driver killed a pedestrian in Arizona when the self-driving car hit the victim while a driver was behind the wheel. An artificial intelligence IBM device named Watson was used to help physicians diagnose cancer patients and to recommend treatments. It gave unsafe and erroneous treatment recommendations. The great danger of artificial intelligence is its unpredictable behavior. Such programs are now also being programmed toward self-learning and self-advancement. But we are dealing with systems that know of no ethics or moral values. They can take on sufficient knowledge to eventually be self-sufficient in leading and directing man, if not, in annihilating man.

Several scientists and technologists have expressed grave concern and reserve about how far to permit the development of artificial intelligence. .The online Blog, CB Insights Research Briefs, discussed the opinions of 52 AI Researchers. I mention a few of the high points of 5 of those, briefly, here. The late Dr. Stephen Hawking, world-famous astrophysicist, believed that artificial intelligence would not be possible to control in the long term. Elon Musk considers artificial intelligence as our biggest existential threat, needing national and international regulation. He says, "With artificial intelligence we are summoning the demon." He says "AI doesn't have to be evil to destroy humanity-if AI has a goal and humanity just happens in the way, it will destroy humanity as a matter of course without even thinking about it, no hard feelings." Blogger Tim Urban states that the real danger of AI is that it is inherently unknowable. He says that we cannot regulate technology that we cannot predict. Oren Etzioni, Chief Executive of the Allen Institute for Artificial Intelligence states that little children have common sense but these deep learning programs do not; that is a huge problem. Then there are the unintended consequences that we will have to deal with. What do you do if a medical artificial intelligence program designed and programmed to rid patients of cancer, concludes that the best way to obliterate the cancer is by exterminating the patient because they are genetically prone to the disease.? Nick Bostrom of the Future of Humanity Institute says that we are like kids playing with a bomb.

The answer to resisting artificial intelligence is spiritual, first . We must stand on the Word of God that says:
(SPEAK ALOUD:

1. "We walk by faith and not by sight." (2 Cor.5:7)
2. " No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that is raised against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of The Lord, and their righteousness is of me, says The Lord." Isa.54:17)
3. "In that day you shall decree a thing, and it will be established for you." (Job 22:28)
4. "Above all, take up the SHIELD OF FAITH wherewith you shall be able to quench ALL the fiery darts of the Evil One." (Eph.6:16)
5. "So shall they fear the Name of The Lord from the West, and His Glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of The Lord shall lift up a standard against him." (Isa.59:19)
6. "Speak to the mountain (problem). If you say to the mountain, "Be uprooted and cast into the sea, believing without doubt in your heart, you shall have whatsoever you say." (Mk.11:23-24)
7. "Life and death are in the power of the tongue and they who engage it will eat the fruit thereof." (Prov.18:21)
8. "I give you power to trample over serpents and scorpions [Satan, unholy angels, demons, evil people] and authority over ALL the power of The Enemy [that would include Satan] and nothing by any means shall harm you." (Lk.10:19)

9. "Whatsoever you bind on Earth is bound in Heaven, and whatsoever you loose on Earth is loosed in Heaven." (Mt.16:19) { The literal NT Greek says, "Whatsoever you bind on Earth (2nd Mouth). already having been bound in Heaven (1st Mouth) is bound, and whatsoever you loose on Earth (2nd Mouth) , already having been loosed in Heaven is loosed.(1st Mouth)" Heaven does it first, then, we speak and release it to the atmosphere because life and death are in the power of the tongue.]
10. "The Lord shall make you the head and not the tail; and you shall be above only and not beneath." (Deut.28:12-13)

SPIRITUAL WARFARE TACTICS TO OPPOSE/DESTROY ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE:

1. DO NOT, under any circumstances, receive vaccinations by force or mandate. There is strong reason to believe that they contain nanochips, tracking devices (chips), animal DNA, DNA of aborted fetuses, microchips, aluminum nanoparticles, mercury, lead, chromium, boron, other heavy metals, foreign virus particles, designer viruses, or other potentially lethal ingredients or devices for mind control.
2. If you have already received a vaccine with an implant under the skin at some part of body, usually the scalp behind the ear, forehead behind the hairline, or web of the hand between the thumb and index finger, or somewhere under the skin of an arm, forearm, leg, or skin of the abdomen, try to locate it first. Using the ball of your fingertip, feel for a pea-sized lump under the skin, not to far below the service. I should be about the size of a grain of rice. If you can detect it by rolling the pad of your index finger over the top of it from side-to-side to get a good feel for its location, make an "X" mark over it with a pen. Go on the Internet and do a search for "15,000 gausse Neodynium magnets" . It will take you to a number of sales websites that will display numerous types. Find a Neodynium magnet that looks like a Quarter, flat and round. Buy several. They are the most powerful magnets on the market. Be careful in handling them They can snap together from large distances away from each other. You might get your fingertip skin caught between them, and they will be difficult to separate. It will be painful. Keep them always well separated from each other when in use (at least 20 inches apart.) Also, store them separately. If they snap together, DO NOT try to separate them with a knife or sharp object. It is too dangerous and you risk stabbing your palm,. Instead, to separate two that are stuck together, take them to the edge of a table with a sharp edge. Stand them up at the edge so that one coin is resting on the table, and the other coin is hanging outside of the table edge over the floor. Then take the back of a spoon, and lay the tip over the edge of the coin that is hanging over the edge of the table with the floor beneath, steady your grip of the table-based coin with you right hand, and push down on the outside coin hanging off the table with the back of the spoon pressing over and down upon the edge of the outside coin. Use steady pressure and it should slowly move downward and separate from the other coin. If you have to store them together, place a piece of cardboard between them so that they cannot make contact with each other.
3. If you detect the presence of an implant anywhere in the locations described above, take a Neodynium magnet, positive side down on the skin, and place it on the skin and hold or tape it there for 7 minutes. Then remove. Repeat for 7 minutes daily for 3-4 days. Monitor yourself for improvement in any symptoms that might have been there that suddenly cease. If that happens, you were receiving electronic harassment from the implant. Implants act like transducers. The both transmit and recieve electronic signals. They have no place in our bodies.
4. If you are hearing buzzing or hissing noises in one or both ears, or "radio talk or music" or come and go ringing in the ears, or "clicks" or "telegraph" sounds, place the Neodynium magnets, positive side down, on the skin above the boney protuberance behind your ear and hold it there for 7 minutes. Repeat for 3-4 days or until the symptoms disappear. If they do not disappear by 10 days, the implant is probably too deep and away from the skin for the magnetic fields to reach the implant and burn out its circuits. Most of the time, you will be successful, so receive it by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

If after vaccination or exposure to alien abduction, or implants ingested through food or drink (which is why we say GRAE before meals), you perceive change in your thinking or personality, or thought processes, brain fog, insomnia, sleep disturbances, do the following:

Place one Neodyniujm magnet on each side of your head on the right and left, against the bone behind each eye, 2 fingerbreadths above an imaginary line drawn from the angle of the eye to the middle of the opening of each ear. Place Neodynium magnets on each location for 7 minutes, positive side down, then remove. Repeat daily for 4 days, no longer than 9 days. Then, have the person look with eyes straight forward . Place the magnets in line with the pupil of each eye, midline, 4 fingerbreadths above each eyebrow on the right and left, holding the magnet down positive side down upon the skull for 7 minutes. Repeat for 4 days, no more than 9 days. Then, staying in the same line as the mid-line through the pupil, move the magnets 2 more fingerbreadths toward the back and away from the last coin position on the head. Place the coins, positive side down and hold for 7 minutes, repeat for 4 days, no greater than 9 days. Watch for clearing of brain fog, improved sleep, clear thinking, thought disturbances no longer present

5. The same procedure as above can be used to burn out the electric circuits of the microchips or nanochips detected below the skin in the hands, arms, legs, abdomen . If these are close to the skin, the can often be noted when they are receiving transmission or sending them. You can sometimes. hear them. The sound and feel below the skin is very close to the "vibration" setting on your cellphone. Try setting your phone on test vibration and set it on the skin of your left or right upper chest or shoulder to feel and hear the vibration. Now try to imagine the same thing but only coming from under your skin. That is what a transmitting implant would feel like.

6. Destroying Biobots, Robots, Avatars, Resistant Implants, Hidden Implants, Mind Control Implants or Devices and Other Occult Devices, Psychic Implants, Blots, Oblations, Witchcraft Works with or without animal, human, or blood sacrifices:

a. Many of the devices behind many of the things mentioned above are not in the reach of Neodynium magnets.. There are reports in the UFO literature of surgeons removing implants surgically. Some can be seen on x-ray. It is somewhat drastic to have to do that, but if the object is not identified and symptoms are severe, it might be worthwhile to pray on it to see if The Lord wants you to see a surgeon for outpatient removal. Remember, God can heal by natural or divine healing. All healing is from God except psychic healing, which is occult and does not last. It is usually replaced by the same problem or a new problem. Divine healing is permanent.

b. Some of the artificial intelligence devices mentioned above, such as biobots, avatars, workings of witchcraft, blots, oblations, may contain both artificial intelligence and living biological tissues from animals or human abortions or sacrifices by occultists. Here is a simple protocol to follow to deactivate and destroy them:

1. Pray aloud a Prayer of Binding, Deactivation, Destroying and Loosing by Laying-on-of Hands over the suspected area first: "Father God, in the Name and by the blood of Christ Jesus, I bind this (name suspected device) and decree it deactivated permanently by the ministry of impartation through the laying on of hands; I impart death (to living tissue) and destruction (to tissue and artificial intelligence devices), and loose myself from them in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus. I curse its predictive programming, death works, infirmity works, mind control and all other occult activities and devices, and call them destroyed and not replaceable, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. I decree, bind and uproot all backup devices and reinforcing devices and decree complete inactivation and destruction upon them in the Name and by the Blood of Christ Jesus, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name.

2. For persistent and resistant implants, devices, biobots, etc., where the other techniques have not worked, it is time to call upon God's Special Angel, The Angel of The Hoarfrost. We respectfully invite and command angels to come to our presence to assist us, always to the Glory of The Father in Christ Jesus' Name". Pray aloud: "Father God, I invite and command, decree, declare and proclaim, that the Angel of the Hoarfrost come forth to my presence from the Cave of the Snows in the Heavenly realms, to take authority over this (implant, device, etc.) and to freeze all of its mechanical parts and parts of artificial intelligence, and cause them to rust, loose function, wilt and deactivate and all circuits to short out and die, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name to the Glory of The Father. I decree, declare and proclaim that warrior angels of the Lord Christ Jesus come forth to my presence and to destroy all foreign living tissue implants or devices implanted with this (biobot, device, avatar, etc.), bind and remove by force all demonic points of contact assigned to the object or any of its parts, remove the living tissue, now dead, and its assignments through spiritual surgery and destroy them completely so that they cannot be replaced, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. I invite and command the holy angels to repair any tissue damage, and remove by force any and all other unnoticed devices and destroy them also, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name. I decree all of their effects and assignments destroyed and not replaceable. I loose myself, permanently, all in Christ Jesus' Name. I decree retaliations, counterattacks, judgments, wrath or revenge of Satan immediately , completely, permanently and continually forbidden to ever seed, manifest, actualize or realize, all by the faith of God in Christ Jesus' Name, Amen. I thank you, Angel of The Hoarfrost, for you help and cooperation, and give Father God the Glory for you, in Christ Jesus' Name.
